

Clarksville, Tenn

Meri court Experiment Station

8/17/51 - Letter from B. D. Drain advises that the larger C. mol. trees all destroyed except for a branch or two. Seven smaller trees, growing on much poorer land, in excellent health. Light crop of nuts, perhaps a gallon or two to a tree. Trees have a spread of about 30 ft. no cold injury.

Cleveland, Tenn.

W. R. Paddock, Forest Supervisor
U.S. Forest Service

3/23/51 - 50 # 58602 - C. mollissima

CLEVELAND, TENN.

Sim L. Beaty

1935. 10 Asiatic chestnut trees [TENN. VALLEY AUTHORITY]

CLEVELAND, TENN.

C. H. Cunningham

1935. 10 Asiatic chestnut trees [TENN. VALLEY AUTHORITY]

CLEVELAND, TENN.

H. G. Finnell

1935. 10 Asiatic chestnut trees [TENN. VALLEY AUTHORITY]