(Executive Session ends at 10:04 a.m.; Regular Session convenes at 10:20 a.m.)

Agenda Item No. 2:

The Board will consider granting an extension of time for DCP to continue its audit processing for electrical license holders until July 14, 2019 prior to the Legal Division initiating any further legal action.

After discussion, the Board voted unanimously to grant an extension of time for DCP to continue its audit processing for electrical license holders until July 14, 2019, at which time the Legal Division shall initiate further legal action for suspension of such license.

Agenda Item No. 3:

The Board will consider electing two members to assist the Department in calling licensees that have not responded to the 2017 continuing education audit to date.

After discussion, the Board voted unanimously that additional assistance from the Board is not necessary. If licensees have not responded to date, legal action and suspension of license should follow after July 14, 2019.

The meeting adjourned at 10:37 a.m.

Respectfully Submitted,

Karen Layman,
License and Applications Analyst
