Dear Sirs:

As per the accompanying transmittal memorandum, your office is a depository for the enclosed U.S. Geological Survey Open File materials.

You may receive these materials a few days before the month noted on the transmittal memorandum. This is to enable you to log in or record the materials. In no case, however, should these materials be made available to the public prior to the official release date.

Thank you for your attention and cooperation.

John W. McHugh
