BLAST FAX 2019-21

TO: Hospitals, Ambulatory Surgical Centers, ESRDs
FROM: Cheryl Davis, RN, BSN, Public Health Services Manager
Facility Licensing and Investigations Section
DATE: November 14, 2019
SUBJECT: Electronic Deficiency and Violation Letters

The Facility Licensing and Investigations Section (FLIS) of the Department of Public Health (DPH) is moving to a paperless process to issue and receive survey related documents. All findings, with the exception of federal nursing home deficiencies, will be sent to you via email and each facility will be required to submit the plan of correction to this same email box. Please respond with a plan of correction to the email address provided on the deficiency and/or violation letter to dph.flisadmin@ct.gov or fax # 860-622-2655.

This new process is effective December 1, 2019. Please do not hesitate to contact FLIS at 860-509-7400 with any questions. Thank you for your attention.
