June 2019

The Connecticut Department of Agriculture is pleased to announce that this year's Farm-to-Chef Week will run September 15-21, 2019. This special weeklong celebration of food grown and raised by local farmers and prepared by local chefs, now in its tenth year, has continued to grow in popularity, attracting a wide and diverse audience of food enthusiasts.

The Connecticut Department of Agriculture launched the first-ever Connecticut Farm-to-Chef Week in September 2010, inviting restaurants, caterers, schools, institutions, farms, and other dining destinations from across the state to create and showcase their own Farm-to-Chef menus featuring Connecticut Grown ingredients.

A media campaign and promotional materials will help attract diners to participating venues. Sponsorships provided by a few key businesses passionately committed to locally grown farm products and to sustaining Connecticut agriculture help fund these efforts.

We enthusiastically invite your company to become a 2019 Farm-to-Chef Week sponsor. In return for your $1,000 sponsorship, your logo will appear on the event website, social media pages, and other promotional materials, proudly declaring your support of local farms and foods.

A $500 sponsorship is also available and will result in the listing of your company name as a supporter on event materials.

If you have questions or would like additional information about 2019 Farm-to-Chef Week, please feel free to contact me at 860-713-2543 or Erin.Windham@ct.gov

Sincerely,

Erin Windham
Farm-to-Chef Program Coordinator
