

INDEX TO BANKING, CREDIT UNION, CONSUMER CREDIT AND LANDLORD/TENANT ADVISORY OPINIONS AND DECISIONS

USER INSTRUCTIONS

This document contains indexes to advisory opinions and decisions issued by the Banking Commissioner between February 1976 and December 2019. The advisory opinions address banking, credit union, consumer credit and landlord/tenant related matters that have arisen under Title 36a of the Connecticut General Statutes (formerly Title 36) and the regulations implementing Title 36a, as well as other statutes and regulations within the Commissioner's jurisdiction under Titles 47a and 49 of the Connecticut General Statutes.

The opinions and decisions are indexed by subject matter and cross-referenced by statute, regulation and public act numbers. A list of subject titles follows these instructions. Subject titles are hyperlinked to the beginning of the entries under that title. Entries are listed in reverse chronological order with a brief description of the corporate transaction or issue addressed. A sequential number has been added to the date when more than one decision or opinion has been issued on the same date (e.g., 1/1/2019 #1, 1/1/2019 #2, etc.).

Some entries are distinguished by a notation of "D", "DR" or "CU".

- "D" after a date denotes a decision, which is generally a corporate transaction or business event requiring the Commissioner's action. All decisions are listed under the subject category "DEPARTMENT OF BANKING—Decisions".
- "DR" after a date denotes a declaratory ruling, which is a ruling by the Commissioner as to the validity of a regulation or the applicability of a statute, regulation or final decision to specified circumstances, and which is binding on the agency. All declaratory rulings are listed under the subject category "DEPARTMENT OF BANKING—Declaratory Rulings".
- "CU" preceding a date denotes that the opinion or decision relates to a credit union matter.

While an effort has been made to note if an opinion has been superseded, amended or rendered moot by statute, policy or another opinion, or if a court has impacted the Department's position, the review in this endeavor has not been exhaustive.

The latter portion of this document contains indexes to Connecticut public acts, regulations and statutes referenced in the opinions and decisions. Public act references are only to the full act number, but regulation and statute references are detailed to the specific subsections, subdivisions and subparagraphs cited in the opinions and decisions. The notation "Rpl" is used whenever a statute or regulation has been repealed in its entirety.

Decisions and advisory opinions are not available on-line. To obtain a copy, or if you have any questions concerning the use of this index, please contact Tina Daigle at (860) 240-8142 or tina.daigle@ct.gov. The fee charged by the Department of Banking for copies of a public record is $0.25 per page.

SUBJECT INDEX TO BANKING OPINIONS AND DECISIONS
(Revised to December 2019)

ACCOUNTING

- 8/31/1981 #4 Pooled accounting preferred upon merger of 2 mutuals.
- 8/31/1981 #3 Pooled accounting preferred upon merger of 2 mutuals.
- 8/31/1981 #1 Deferring losses on sale of mortgage loans—comments solicited.

ADVERTISING/PROMOTIONS

- CU 10/6/1989 A sweepstakes promotion offered by a credit union is reviewed for safety and soundness and such a promotion must not violate the prohibition against paying a commission, bonus or fee for obtaining members or for the sale of shares of the credit union.
- 12/13/1988 #2 Title 36 does not address the issue of a bank's ability to limit a promotional offer to those who live and work in a particular area.
- 12/2/1988 #2 Department does not object to the promotional drawing open to the general public for prizes including a cruise, television, video recorder, and gift certificates.
- 6/22/1988 A company which solicits customers by referring to such customers' loan history with another lending institution does not violate any banking laws.
- 4/28/1988 Department does not object to a bank's promotion with instant winner tickets with total financial exposure to the bank of $6,400.
- 3/10/1988 Promotion by bank for free computer when CD account is opened discloses tax liability to depositors and does not violate state banking statute.
- 11/5/1987 Bank may offer promotion to remedy a customer's problem within 24 hours or credit that customer's account $25.
- 10/23/1987 #2 Bank must provide notice of conditions in its advertisements re a promotion and on the signature cards of such account.
- 10/5/1987 Bank promotion to award $50 on a random basis to individuals who have used an ATM is reviewed by the Department for safety and soundness.
- 9/16/1987 Promotions offered by banks are reviewed by the Department to determine the effect the promotion may have on the safety and soundness of the institution.
- 3/3/1987 #1 Chance promotions are reviewed to determine their effect on safety and soundness.

- 9/30/1986 #1 Promotions by federal S&Ls are not regulated by Title 36.
- 7/25/1986 #1 The marketing of a savings and finance plan by a company that has no affiliation with a bank or bank holding company does not contravene § 36-5a.
- 1/3/1986 #2 A S&L need not seek review or approval of the Commissioner to identify itself as a “bank” in its advertising.
- 8/28/1985 Advertisements offering merchandise, in lieu of interest, to prospective depositors must meet certain requirements so as not to be misleading.
- 8/9/1985 Advertisements that incorrectly state the amount of interest allowed to be paid on savings accounts in commercial or savings banks and incorrectly state the availability of interest bearing repurchase agreements may be considered an unfair trade practice under Ch. 735a.
- 11/8/1984 Rates must set forth both accrual of dollars and value of merchandise.
- 11/6/1984 Rates must set forth both accrual of dollars and value of merchandise.
- 9/27/1984 Rates must set forth both accrual of dollars and value of merchandise.
- 4/22/1983 A bank is not prohibited from enclosing promotional brochures with monthly statements.
- 2/2/1982 Drawing for trip is permissible premium under banking laws.
- 7/15/1981 Savings bank may for a fee enclose with monthly credit card billings a notification of contest in connection with solicitation of magazine subscription provided the contest and notification comply with state and federal law.
- 4/14/1980 Legality of advertising in Connecticut media by out-of-state bank.

BANK HOLIDAYS

- 3/8/1996 Connecticut banks and credit unions may, at their option, close or remain open for business on a full or partial basis on any day designated as a legal holiday pursuant to § 1-4.
- 10/7/1994 Investment management services determined not to constitute “banking transactions” for the purpose of § 36-28a.

- 2/25/1992 Ch. 638 does not apply to a nonbank mortgage subsidiary, thus it is not required to adhere to the holiday schedule of its parent bank and may be open on a state banking holiday.
- 11/27/1989 All banking transactions must be suspended during a bank holiday.
- 7/21/1987 #2 Banks not authorized to close on nonholidays or open on holidays.
- 12/30/1985 #1 Denial of a request to close at 1:00 p.m. on a day preceding a legal holiday.
- 12/3/1985 #3 The early closing of a bank on a day preceding a legal holiday constitutes neither an “emergency” nor a “bank holiday” pursuant to § 36-28a.
- 12/8/1982 Banks may close only in emergency or bank holidays. This does not include Friday before a Saturday designated as legal holiday.
- 6/5/1981 Bank need not advertise in advance that it will be closed on a legal holiday.
- 2/9/1978 Closing a loan on a legal holiday under certain circumstances is permissible.

BANKING HOURS

- 10/23/1995 § 36a-23 requires all banking transactions to be suspended during bank holidays. State chartered banking institutions would not be prohibited from maintaining office hours on Sunday.
- 2/25/1992 A nonbank mortgage subsidiary is not subject to customary banking hours and days.
- 11/13/1991 Customary banking hours are 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., Monday through Friday. Department will not approve branch application for less than customary hours and days.
- 2/23/1990 #2 It is implicit in the chartering process that banks must maintain minimum banking hours from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. unless a lesser period is stated.
- 11/1/1988 Notice requirements for Saturday closing of bank.
- 4/7/1988 #2 There are no laws or Regs under Title 36 which specifically fix a cutoff hour by a bank for same day credit.
- 7/21/1987 #2 Banks not authorized to close on nonholidays or open on holidays.
- 5/29/1987 State law does not prohibit Sunday business hours.
- 12/30/1985 #1 Denial of a request to close at 1 p.m. on a day preceding a legal holiday.

- 12/3/1985 #3 The early closing of a bank on a day preceding a legal holiday neither an “emergency” nor a “bank holiday” pursuant to § 36-28a.
- 7/8/1985 #2 Banking hours are from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.
- 7/8/1985 #1 Approval given for bank to open at 9 a.m. instead of 7 a.m. as previously done since later opening not in violation of 9 a.m. opening requirement.
- 12/8/1982 Banks may close only in emergency or bank holidays. This does not include Friday before a Saturday designated as legal holiday.
- 6/5/1981 Bank need not advertise in advance that it will be closed on a legal holiday.

BONDING

- CU 9/5/1984 Bond continuation certificates must be filed with the Department to ensure that the Commissioner is put on notice that a credit union is maintaining adequate surety bond coverage.

BRANCH BANKING

- 12/2/2011 #1 An out-of-state, FDIC-insured bank that originates and closes loans in Connecticut directly with no physical presence in Connecticut is exempt from licensing as a mortgage lender, mortgage correspondent lender or mortgage broker by § 36a-486. In addition, the bank would not run afoul of the general prohibition against a foreign banking corporation transacting business in this state under § 36a-425(a). If closing and funding locations are not held out as offices, the bank will not be establishing an office to conduct “banking business” within the meaning of § 36a-425 and would not require branch approval under § 36a-412.
- 4/9/2010 #1 Offices established by master agents acting on behalf of a bank pursuant to an agency agreement would be considered limited branches of the bank. Subagents who perform services for and on behalf of a master agent from various locations where the bank name is used in signage or the location is held out to the public through advertising, letterheads or otherwise as an office of the bank would be deemed limited branches.
- 11/17/2003 #1 An out-of-state national bank with its main office in Delaware would not meet the reciprocity requirement of § 36a-412(a)(2) because Delaware law does not permit the establishment of a de novo branch by an out-of-state bank, but the Commissioner may waive this requirement for the establishment of a de novo branch, the activities of which are limited to the exercise of fiduciary or trust powers if the Commissioner finds that such establishment will result in net new benefits to this state.

- 5/1/2002 A New York chartered bank that has acquired a branch in Connecticut pursuant to § 36a-412(a)(3)(B) may establish a de novo branch in Connecticut under § 36a-412(a)(2).
- 5/21/1999 Explanation of approval requirements for de novo branching by out-of-state banks.
- 3/24/1997 Courier service is not a branch of the bank within the meaning of § 36a-145 although it did not satisfy all requirements of 12 CFR Part 7.
- 9/17/1996 #2 The successor to an out-of-state bank that acquired branches in Connecticut pursuant to § 36-555 may establish additional branches in Connecticut pursuant to § 36a-412(a)(1) and such establishment must be in accordance with the provisions of § 36a-145, including that requiring the approval of the Commissioner.
- 6/6/1996 #1 An out-of-state bank may, with the Commissioner's prior approval, use a d/b/a for its branches in Connecticut so long as it includes the name of the bank as set forth on its certificate of incorporation.
- 5/31/1996 Branches of a Connecticut bank may use a d/b/a with the Commissioner's prior approval so long as it includes the name of the bank as set forth on its certificate of incorporation.
- 8/22/1995 Manned night depository facilities are not branches of a bank within the meaning of § 36a-145, if compliance with 12 CFR 7 is met.
Manned night depositories would be "satellite devices" within the meaning of § 36a-2(50), but can only be established by banks, Connecticut credit unions or federal credit unions.
- 5/18/1995 Any out-of-state bank that has established branches in Connecticut may establish additional branches in Connecticut in accordance with § 36a-145, including loan production offices which are "limited branches" as defined in that statute.
- 3/1/1993 #1 P.A. 92-17 authorized banking institutions to establish branches that provide limited services or are open for limited time periods if a special need exists.
- 5/6/1991 A night drop facility would not be approved as a branch or a remote extension of a branch.
- 9/14/1990 #1 Discussion of ability of national bank resulting from conversion of state bank which prior to conversion had merged with out-of-state bank to branch in Connecticut and the other state.
- 6/5/1990 Discussion re establishment of bank branch and ATMs by state and international banks and territorial restrictions re same.
- 2/23/1990 #2 State bank and trust companies cannot limit branch services.

- 12/12/1989 No approval is required to establish a temporary loan production office unless, pursuant to § 36-130, the premises are altered.
- 5/15/1989 #2 A “training facility” at the offices of a savings bank which conducts banking transactions including deposits, withdrawals and check cashing is a branch for the purposes of § 36-129.
- 5/1/1989 Limiting branch activity to only serve merchants for a minimum number of hours would not be considered a satellite device, would not fulfill its statutory obligations and would not meet minimum banking hours.
- 7/21/1987 #2 Bank branches must provide a full range of services to the general public.
- 3/27/1987 #1 A Connecticut savings bank may not establish a de novo branch in Massachusetts and a Massachusetts savings bank may not establish a de novo branch in Connecticut.

BRANCH BANKING—Closings and Openings of Branches

- 10/4/1991 Bank cannot close lobby facilities of a branch and continue utilizing drive-up facility, as it would limit the services it offers the public or class of persons it serves.
- 11/27/1989 All banking transactions must be suspended during a bank holiday.
- 11/1/1988 Notice requirements for Saturday closing of bank.
- 7/29/1988 #1 Denial of a request by bank to close for business on a Friday to facilitate a relocation.
- 11/16/1987 (Superseded by § 36a-145(f)) (As of 3/16/1992, Department policy is 90-day notice for closings) A bank must send 30 days’ written notice of a branch closing to the Commissioner and branch depositors.
- 11/4/1987 (Superseded by § 36a-145(f)) (As of 3/16/1992, Department policy is 90-day notice for closings) A bank must send 30 days’ written notice of a branch closing to the Commissioner and branch depositors.
- 11/2/1987 Notice requirements for temporary closing of main office.
- 4/23/1987 (Superseded by § 36a-145(f)) (As of 3/16/1992, Department policy is 90-day notice for closings) Closing of a branch is a business decision within the discretion of bank management.
- 12/19/1986 (Superseded by § 36a-145(f)) (As of 3/16/1992, Department policy is 90-day notice for closings) A bank must send 30-days’ written notice of a branch closing to the Commissioner.

- 1/16/1985 (Superseded by § 36a-145(f)) (As of 3/16/1992, Department policy is 90-day notice for closings) Notice requirements for closing of branches and safe deposit relocation procedure.
- 8/23/1984 A branch or bank may close at the time of a robbery to preserve the crime scene without obtaining prior approval from the Commissioner.
- 8/2/1984 #2 Branch purchased under § 36-30 is not required to be kept open, business may be transferred to a branch opened under other statutory authority.
- 11/2/1983 A bank may temporarily close a branch during reconstruction and re-open the branch when new building is ready without this Department's approval.
- 4/25/1983 Statutory notice requirements for establishing full service bank were complied with by First Bank.
- 2/16/1983 (Superseded by § 36a-145(f)) (As of 3/16/1992, Department policy is 90-day notice for closings) 30 days' written notice to office and adequate notice to depositors necessary for temporary closing of a branch.
- 12/15/1982 #2 No approval of the Commissioner required where FHLBB has approved extension of time to open branch bank.
- 12/2/1982 Statutes governing closing of a University branch.
- 5/10/1982 #2 Without applying to the Department, a bank may temporarily close a branch while the building is razed and a new building built and then reopen a branch in that building.
- 5/21/1980 Acknowledgment of notice of temporary closing of branch in supermarket when supermarket has gone out of business.

BRANCH BANKING—Expanded Facility as Part of Branch

- 7/31/1984 #1 ATM 70 to 270 feet from branch office in the same mall is a satellite device, not a part of the branch.
- 4/23/1982 ATM on property contiguous to branch is part of branch.
- 11/9/1981 ATM in corporate premises around the corner, and another 2 blocks away, from downtown branch are not part of that branch because ATM serves different market from branch.
- 8/31/1981 #2 Artificial criteria should be avoided in determining if ATM is part of branch.

- 8/14/1981 #5 Upon expansion of main office from 2nd floor to include 1st floor as well: 1st floor is part of the same office as the 2nd floor. Since the 2 floors are vertically adjacent, it is unnecessary to review whether criteria other than adjacency would suffice.
- 4/29/1981 Particular ATM is part of particular branch because of common ownership of branch and ATM sites, both sites being on same complex with restricted access, and both serving the same market.
- 1/13/1981 Particular ATM is part of particular branch because of short distance between branch and ATM, location of both in same complex, and both serving the same market.
- 12/26/1980 Approval of Savings Bank of Manchester's establishing a mobile branch.
- 6/17/1980 Particular ATM is part of particular branch because of short distance between them, common ownership of the 2 buildings in the same complex, and both serving the same market.

BRANCH BANKING—Home Office Protection (Letters on this subject rendered moot by P.A. 86-176)

- 6/9/1987 The conversion of a federal savings bank to a Connecticut savings bank will not "close" the town to a savings bank with less than $350 million in total assets.
- 2/5/1986 Commercial bank can branch under § 36-129 as long as its activities are limited to those of a savings bank.
- 12/3/1985 #2 Home office protection prohibits a state bank and trust company from opening a second de novo branch in Fairfield.

- 1/11/1983 Charters may not be changed or amended without approval of the Commissioner.

CHECK CASHING SERVICES

- 8/22/2018 The Department takes a "no action" position concerning the requirement that any Connecticut activity by check cashing servicer licensees be conducted from a "state" for the period of October 1, 2018 to December 31, 2018 when such entities hold a valid license for such activity through December 31, 2018.
- 7/9/2014 A company located in Connecticut that cashes checks for a foreign purchaser of such checks and provides the money back to the purchaser for a fee would need to obtain a license to operate a general facility.
- 8/19/2014 #2 A licensed pawn shop that cashes checks it issues to customers for items sold or pawned, and for which it does not charge a fee, would not be required to obtain a check cashing services license.
- 5/20/1999 Operators of check cashing machines would have to obtain check cashing services licenses and such machines would have to be open to the general public.
- 3/23/1994 An entity acting as agent for a national bank for purposes of cashing checks is not exempt from the licensing provisions of Ch. 662d.

- 12/16/1993 An organization which assists people disabled by prolonged psychiatric illness which advances funds against certain types of checks made payable to the member may be exempt from licensing under Ch. 662d.
- 12/4/1991 #1 A company that charges a check guarantee fee plus a fee of $.50 for cashing a check is required to be licensed.
- 11/14/1991 Check cashing services may not operate from mobile units. Such service cannot limit the types of checks it cashes.
- 10/18/1990 #2 “WORM” optical disk image is a “viewable photographic record” within the meaning of § 21-118-3(a)(1)(B) of Regs.
- 3/13/1990 It is not permissible for check cashing licensees to operate from mobile units. There is no prohibition against a corporation engaging in both the money order and check cashing businesses at the same location, but both need separate licenses and must maintain separate records.
- 7/15/1986 (Superseded by P.A. 88-200) Business which engages in cashing checks for a fee and is not affiliated in any way with a banking institution is not required to obtain a license or charter from the Department.
- 3/24/1986 #2 (Superseded by P.A. 88-200) A company engaged in the business of cashing checks, and is not affiliated with a banking institution, is not required to obtain a license or charter from the Department.
- 7/17/1985 (Superseded by P.A. 88-200) Entity engaging solely in the business of cashing checks and which is not affiliated in any way with a banking institution, is not required to obtain a license or charter from the Department.
- 11/27/1984 #8 (Superseded by P.A. 88-200) Company that engages solely in cashing checks for a fee that is not affiliated with a bank holding company or out-of-state banking corporation is not engaged in banking business and is not required to obtain a license or charter from the Department.
- 11/27/1984 #2 (Superseded by P.A. 88-200) Company cashing checks for fee.

CHECK HOLD POLICIES

- 1/31/2008 #2 A Connecticut bank may not by contract increase the funds availability period beyond that required by § 36a-302.
- 7/26/1993 Availability requirements for cashier’s checks under § 36-9v and Reg. CC; cannot opine as to whether federal savings association’s funds availability policy is subject to UCC or whether an unduly restrictive policy constitutes an unfair trade practice.

CHECK HOLD POLICIES (Continued)

- CU 3/15/1990 Addressing the authority of credit union to prevent a member from withdrawing funds available under Reg. CC from an account with a minimum balance requirement.
- 5/3/1989 A bank is permitted to extend check hold time periods where it has reasonable cause to believe that a check will not clear.
- CU 1/31/1989 #2 The provisions of § 36-9v do not apply to federal credit unions with respect to nontransaction accounts since such accounts fall outside of the scope of Reg. CC.
- 7/29/1988 #3 (Rendered moot) “Intervening days” are counted from the first business day after deposit; check hold time frames are based on intervening days, not business days.
- 9/24/1987 #1 A bank is required to notify customers every time a change in check hold policies occurs.
- 12/11/1985 #1 Bank not permitted to apply “hold” against an item that was cashed and not deposited.
First business day is the banking day on which item is received.
- 9/19/1984 #2 Requirement of P.A. 84-164 that banks notify customers in writing of its check hold policy.

CHECKS/SHARE DRAFTS

- 6/22/2000 #1 Although §§ 17-2-215(a)(7) and 17-2-215(b)(3)(c) of the Regs, promulgated pursuant to § 36a-305 recognizes the use of credit card numbers for identification, those regs do not address the recording of such numbers on checks.
- 11/23/1998 #2 There are no laws within the jurisdiction of the Department concerning the information required by retail stores before accepting payment from a customer by check.
- 10/8/1996 #1 A bank’s policy to require the filing of a police report and an affidavit before it will act on customer’s request for reimbursement of a forged check does not violate any statute or reg under the Commissioner’s jurisdiction
- 8/21/1995 There are no laws within the jurisdiction of the Department concerning the imposition of overdraft fees charged by banks, postdated checks, and the return of checks for insufficient funds. However, § 42a-4-401(a) provides that a bank may charge against the account of a customer an item that is properly payable from that account even though the charge creates an overdraft; and § 42a-4-401(c) provides a bank may charge a postdated check against its customer’s account, even though payment was made before the date of the check, unless the customer has given timely notice to the bank describing the check with reasonable certainty.

- 7/31/1995 A court may determine that a bank cannot stop payment on a teller's check at the request of the bank's customer, the purchaser of the instrument, and may hold the bank liable for damages if it refuses to pay the person asserting the right to enforce the check pursuant to § 42a-3-411.
- 5/11/1995 A bank is permitted by § 42a-4-205 to receive an unendorsed check from a customer for payment or deposit.
- 4/24/1995 A bank is permitted by § 42a-4-205 to receive an unendorsed check from a customer for payment or deposit; a check must be signed by the drawer to be valid and negotiable regardless of whether the signature is made manually or by another device; a bank which pays a check bearing a forged signature may be held liable in a civil lawsuit.
- 11/23/1993 Title 36 and the corresponding Regs do not contain a requirement that a customer must use words to delineate the amount of a check or draft.
- 5/10/1993 Whether identifying the payee of a check by first name only is sufficient identification for purposes of § 42a-3-110 and whether a bank may refuse to pay a check that does not include the payee's surname pursuant to § 42a-3-501(b)(3) are issues that are appropriately determined in a court of law.
- CU 3/1/1991 Department lacks jurisdiction to address an issue of whether a check must be made out in English rather than Spanish.
- CU 12/12/1988 Specific hold on funds in a member's account does not satisfy requirement that a credit union which certifies a share draft segregate funds sufficient to cover the draft.
- CU 3/1/1988 Credit union may certify share drafts provided certain conditions are followed.
- 5/27/1986 The UCC does not expressly require a bank to honor checks presented for payment by a payee.
- 4/4/1985 #2 Once a bank is put on notice that forgeries have occurred on an account, the bank is required to take appropriate action to insure that the depositor is protected.
- 5/7/1984 There are no state laws or Regs governing fees banks may impose for processing overdrawn checks.
- CU 9/28/1983 Member credit unions of the Central Credit Union may withdraw funds from the Central Credit Union by way of third party demand drafts.
- 4/4/1983 Stop payment orders are beyond the jurisdiction of the Commissioner, governed by § 42a-4-403.
- 3/15/1983 #2 State chartered S&Ls do not have power to draw checks on themselves.

- 1/7/1982 Factors determining liability if bank refuses to cash a check for a person who does not have an account.
- 4/10/1980 Bank's threat to bring criminal action if depositor fails to pay bank the amount of NSF check may itself be larceny.
- 8/31/1979 Financial institution's refusal to cash check drawn on that institution may be wrongful dishonor under UCC.
- 5/23/1979 Explanation of why banks may refuse to cash checks unless person has account at bank.

CHECKS—Drawer—Signature

- 6/22/2000 #2 The statutes governing signatures and endorsements on checks, including forged checks, are found in Articles 3 and 4 of Title 42a (UCC).
- 7/27/1983 #2 Certification of a check does not constitute certification of the drawer's signature.

DEPOSITS—Public Deposits

- 5/8/2001 § 36a-337(b) authorizes a qualified public depository to use a surety bond issued by a private insurance company licensed to do business in Connecticut to secure up to 50% of the public deposits that it holds in place of otherwise required segregated collateral.
- 12/3/1997 Ch. 665a requires that eligible collateral be held in Connecticut unless the Commissioner otherwise approves, but does not require such collateral to be held in a specific Federal Reserve Bank or that lawsuits with respect to such collateral be brought in a specific court.
- 1/9/1995 § 36-386 would not require a qualified public depository to segregate eligible collateral based solely upon public funds held by such depository in a trust capacity.
- 12/23/1993 Commissioner's signature is not necessary for a security agreement between a public depositor and qualified public depository to be enforceable.
- 1/20/1993 An out-of-state bank which accepts and holds municipal funds in custodial capacity would not be accepting public deposits within the meaning of § 36-382.
- 5/12/1992 A securities broker-dealer would not qualify as trustee of collateral to protect public deposits under § 36-385-9 of the Regs.
- 12/13/1991 #2 The acquiror of a failed institution, which was a qualified public depository for at least 2 years prior to failure, would be a successor institution to a qualified public depository for purposes of § 36-386(a). If the amount of public deposits shown on the most recent call report or average of 4 most recent call reports equals zero, then the amount of public deposits held will be actual amount on deposit.
- 12/13/1991 #1 In the case of a failed institution which was a qualified public depository for at least 2 years prior to failure, an acquiring institution would be a successor institution to a qualified public depository for purposes of § 36-386(a).
- CU 10/21/1991 #2 P.A. 91-245 does not remove the dollar limitation on nonmember deposits that credit unions are subject to under § 36-200(h).

- 10/9/1991 #2 § 7-402 authorizes public officials to deposit moneys in a qualified public depository. “Qualified public depository”, as defined, does not include mutual funds.
- 8/29/1986 The term “qualified public depository” as used in § 7-402 does not include bank holding companies.
- 7/14/1986 Discussion of the manner in which Ch. 656 protects public deposits in excess of $100,000.
- 5/2/1986 #1 Description of the provisions of Ch. 656.
- 3/10/1986 Description of the provisions of Ch. 656.
- 1/10/1986 Ch. 656 deals only with the protection of public deposits, it does not address the authority of a municipality to make an investment in government securities.
- 4/26/1985 #2 Qualified public depositories, as defined in § 36-382, refers only to in-state institutions.
- 11/1/1984 #1 Out-of-state bank may maintain custody of securities pledged as collateral against state deposits pursuant to §§ 36-20 and 36-386(b) of the CGS and § 36-385-3 of the Regs.
- 3/15/1983 #4 Municipalities have a $100,000 deposit limitation in savings banks. Deposits in all other public depositories, including state and federal S&Ls, may equal 75% of capital, general loss reserve, surplus and undivided profits of such depository.
- 3/14/1983 #1 Public funds on deposit in “qualified public depository” are protected against loss in proportion to their maximum liability.
- 1/21/1982 Guaranteed portion of SBA loan is eligible collateral for public deposits.
- 12/14/1981 Savings banks, S&Ls, and commercial banks may accept the proceeds of lottery ticket sales as “special or suspense” public deposits.

INTERSTATE BANKING

- 2/25/2011 Out-of-state banks that do not designate offices in Connecticut as specific permanent locations from which they conduct business or hold the offices out to the public as offices of the bank would not be considered “branches” for purposes of § 36a-412.
- 11/10/2008 New York’s de novo interstate banking law is not reciprocal with § 36a-412(a)(2).
- 9/28/2005 Offices of a nonbanking affiliate of a national bank may discuss bank products and answer related questions without such offices being deemed offices or branches of such bank.
- 10/24/2002 State-chartered bank located in Rhode Island would be authorized to establish a de novo branch in Connecticut since the conditions imposed by the laws of Rhode Island for such establishment are no more restrictive than those imposed under Connecticut law.
- 9/27/2002 Pennsylvania bank authorized to engage in trust services may establish an office in Connecticut to offer full trust services without having to accept deposits or offer loans from such office.
- 7/16/2002 Out-of-state national bank must obtain the Commissioner’s approval pursuant to § 36a-412(a)(2) and fulfill the filing requirements of § 36a-145 prior to opening an office in Connecticut for the purposes of performing fiduciary activities.
- 7/10/2002 Courier service is not a “branch” of an out-of-state bank within the meaning of § 36a-410(1) and does not require the prior approval of the Commissioner under § 36a-412(a)(2).
- 5/29/2002 Bank limited to fiduciary powers does not establish an office under § 36a-425(b) or a de novo branch under § 36a-410 where its employee functions solely in a sales and marketing capacity from a leased space in Connecticut and the space is not held out as an office of the bank, nor do such activities constitute “transacting business” under § 36a-425(a).
- 5/6/2002 Offices of a nonbanking affiliate of out-of-state banks and a Connecticut bank may solicit for fiduciary services, loans, deposits and custody services on behalf of the banks without such offices being deemed offices or branches of such banks.
- 5/1/2002 New York chartered bank that has acquired a branch in Connecticut pursuant to § 36a-412(a)(3)(B) may establish a de novo branch under § 36a-412(a)(2).
- CU 4/25/2002 Written approval of the Commissioner is a requisite under § 36a-472 for an out-of-state credit union to do business in Connecticut by either establishing a subsidiary office or adding select employee groups in Connecticut.
- 8/29/2000 Powers of an acquired out-of-state branch of a Connecticut bank are limited to those of the Connecticut bank.

INTERSTATE BANKING (Continued)

- 8/3/2000 Acquisition of a branch or the de novo establishment of a branch in Connecticut by a Nevada bank would not meet the reciprocity requirements of § 36a-412.
- 5/24/2000 Under § 36a-412(a)(3)(B), the Commissioner's approval is not presently required for an out-of-state bank to acquire a branch which is in this state from another out-of-state bank.
- 1/7/1999 #4 § 36a-412(a)(1) authorizes an out-of-state bank to merge or consolidate with or acquire the assets or stock of a state chartered bank, provided that the requirements of the statute are met.
- 12/6/1996 Rhode Island bank that is chartered as a financial institution that is not authorized to take deposits but is subject to the statutory provisions applicable to deposit taking financial institutions comes within the definition of "out-of-state bank" contained in § 36a-2(41) and must comply with § 36a-412(a)(2) re the establishment of a de novo branch in Connecticut by an out-of-state bank.
- 5/18/1995 Any out-of-state bank that has established branches in Connecticut may establish additional branches in Connecticut in accordance with § 36a-145, including loan production offices which are "limited branches" as defined in that statute.
- 4/11/1995 Out-of-state bank that merges or consolidates with or acquires the assets of a state-chartered bank under § 36a-412(a) would be exempt under § 37-9 from usury provisions and §§ 37-4, 37-5 and 37-6 while operating the business of such state-chartered bank.
- 8/15/1994 #2 Out-of-state savings bank that acquires Connecticut savings banks pursuant to § 36-555(a) is subject to the community reinvestment requirements in Ch. 639a with respect to its operations in this state to the same extent as a Connecticut savings bank.
- 4/7/1994 In the case of the acquisition from the RTC of the assets of a federally chartered thrift located in Connecticut by an out-of-state bank, the Commissioner would be inclined to grant a waiver under § 36-22b of the requirement under § 36-554 that the acquisition be accomplished through the acquisition of stock.
- 10/28/1993 Citizens Savings Bank, a Rhode Island savings bank that acquired New England Savings Bank, would be a "financial institution" for purposes of § 36-9h in order to participate in the Connecticut Capital Access Fund established under § 32-265.
- 7/28/1993 Out-of-state savings bank that acquires all or substantially all of the assets of a Connecticut savings bank pursuant to § 36-555(a) may establish a satellite device in Connecticut in the same manner and subject to the same requirements as a Connecticut savings bank.
- 4/25/1990 Department will make interstate reciprocity determinations only at the time an interstate transaction application is filed.

3/26/1981 #1 State bank and trust company may, in joint venture with developer, acquire real estate, develop it, and sell it.

INVESTMENTS—Securities

6/13/2003 Investment advisory services and full-service securities brokerage are “closely related activities” within the meaning of § 36a-250(a)(40) and a Connecticut bank may transfer, book and maintain its equity investment in a subsidiary that will engage in investment advisory services, full-service securities brokerage activities and certain insurance sales activities, but will not engage in any securities or insurance underwriting activities.

8/4/1999 Connecticut banks may invest in a limited partnership interest in a licensed Small Business Investment Company or a corporation seeking licensure as an SBIC pursuant to § 36a-276(b).

8/28/1998 No action position re bank’s investment in the equity securities of a company which provides investment advisory and estate planning services, broker-dealer services and insurance brokerage services, even though the investment exceeds the limitations set forth in § 36a-276(b).

10/7/1997 Determination of whether a trust preferred security is a “debt security” or an “equity security” for the purposes of §§ 36a-275 and 36a-276 must be made on a case-by-case basis.

5/10/1996 Connecticut bank may invest in corporate bonds issued as Rule 144A transactions pursuant to the leeway provision contained in § 36a-279.

- 10/19/1979 Savings banks are authorized to invest in mortgage-backed securities.
- 9/17/1979 Bank may sell bonds it owns on secondary market.
- 7/30/1979 Savings banks are authorized to invest in mortgage-backed securities.
- 3/15/1979 Savings banks are authorized to invest in CDA bonds.
- 11/17/1978 Single-family mortgage revenue bonds issued by City of Quincy, Illinois, are not authorized investments under § 36-96(2)(d), 36-96b or 36-9b, but could be acquired under leeway.
- 9/7/1978 Discussion of authority of banking institutions to invest in City's revenue bonds which are secured by an FHA insured mortgage note.
- 11/28/1977 Mortgage backed pass-through certificates issued by First Federal S&L of Chicago are authorized investments for savings banks.

LANDLORD/TENANT ISSUES

- 11/14/2008 The provisions of § 47a-21 do not apply to a security deposit paid for retail store space and the Department does not have any jurisdiction over the failure of the landlord to return the security deposit.
- 8/29/2007 Out-of-state national bank with only a sales office in Connecticut is not a "financial institution" as defined in § 47a-21(a)(4) and, therefore, may not offer tenant escrow services to landlords in Connecticut.
- 9/24/2004 #1 Violation of § 47a-21(k) is within the jurisdiction of the Office of the Chief State's Attorney to investigate and enforce.
- 1/11/1994 It is the position of the Department not to pursue complaints involved in ongoing litigation; only a court has the authority to impose sanctions under § 47a-21(k) for a violation of § 47a-21(h).
- 12/8/1992 Landlord's good faith claim under § 47a-21(j) deprives the Commissioner of jurisdiction over the refusal to return a security deposit.
- 11/25/1992 § 47a-21(d)(1) emphasizes that the landlord at time of termination of tenancy is responsible for security deposit, which may have been given to a prior landlord, even if not received by said landlord.
- 11/4/1992 Commissioner may not have jurisdiction to investigate complaint where "tenant" cancels rental before taking possession; case may involve CUTPA.

- 8/4/1992 (Superseded by P.A. 93-41) Commissioner does not have jurisdiction to investigate complaints arising under § 47a-21(b).
- 5/4/1992 Repudiation of an existing lease on bank-owned foreclosed residential property acquired by the RTC as conservator of the bank does not relieve the RTC of liability to return the security deposit to the tenant even if the prior landlord did not turn over the security deposit to the bank.
- 4/28/1992 Department believes proper method for calculating double damages pursuant to § 47a-21(d)(2) is to double the amount of security deposit paid then add interest; any damages would be deducted from the results.
- 4/14/1992 Landlord who sent itemized damages statement to tenant by certified mail but was not accepted may have delivered statement within 30-day period specified in § 47a-21(d)(2) and within 15 days after written notice of forwarding address as specified by § 47a-21(d)(4).
- 3/2/1992 Attempted waiver of 30-day time period of § 47a-21(d)(2) by inserting longer time period in lease is inoperative and § 47a-21(d)(2) controls.
- 2/4/1992 In the case where a bank forecloses on residential property and the prior landlord fails to deliver the tenant's security deposit to the bank, should a tenant terminate his tenancy during the time the bank is a successor landlord, the bank is liable for the return of the security deposit.
- 1/31/1992 Although § 47a-21(h)(3)(A) imposes upon a former landlord the duty to turn over security deposits upon transfer of the property, which should have been placed into escrow, the law does not relieve a successor landlord of its duty to comply with §§ 47a-21(d), (e) and (i).
- 5/13/1991 No basis exists to investigate a claim that a landlord failed to maintain a security deposit in escrow in violation of § 47a-21(h) after security deposit has been returned to tenant.
- 11/8/1983 #1 Landlord who alleges good faith claim of damages is not relieved of obligations under § 47a-21(d)(1) and (2).
- 4/20/1983 Rental payments to a landlord does not give rise to the creditor/debtor relationship envisaged by § 36-243b.
- 4/6/1983 Tenancy may terminate through consent or agreement of the parties.
- 3/30/1983 #2 Once tenancy terminates, landlords must satisfy requirements of § 47a-21.
- 2/22/1982 #1 Landlord must pay interest on security deposit under § 47a-21(i) unless tenant is more than 10 days late paying rent.

- 1/18/1982 Security deposits under §§ 47a-21 through 47a-22a explained.
- 11/30/1981 #2 Landlord not required under § 47a-21 to cash bearer bond and deposit money in escrow account nor pay interest.

LEAD GENERATOR

- 8/22/2018 The Department takes a “no action” position concerning the requirement that any Connecticut activity by lead generator licensees be conducted from a “state” for the period of October 1, 2018 to December 31, 2018 when such entities hold a valid license for such activity through December 31, 2018.
- 11/30/2016 (See P.A. 17-38; added provisions re lead generators) Person who, for compensation or gain, or with the expectation of compensation or gain, takes financial information particular to a consumer or mortgage transaction and becomes the conduit between the consumer and the lender or broker, the person is acting in a broker or origination role and requires the applicable license.
- 3/8/2012 #2 (See P.A. 17-38; added provisions re lead generators) Information gatherer is “taking a residential mortgage loan application” under the facts presented and is required to obtain a mortgage broker license.
- 5/11/2011 (See P.A. 17-38; added provisions re lead generators) Company that offers software that allows users to view loan quotes from various mortgage lenders, collects information from users to allow a lender to make credit decisions, and conveys such information to a lender of the user’s choosing would be required to obtain a mortgage broker license in Connecticut.
- 4/8/2008 (See P.A. 17-38; added provisions re lead generators) Lead generator that has an online service that matches prospective borrowers with mortgage lenders or brokers and who receives a flat fee from lenders and brokers for each application would have to be licensed as a mortgage broker if prospective borrowers who complete the online questionnaire obtain mortgage loans.
- 10/22/2004 #2 (See P.A. 17-38; added provisions re lead generators) Company that brings together mortgage lenders and borrowers through its website and receives compensation from the lenders for doing so would be required to be licensed as a mortgage broker.

LEASING

- 11/16/2001 Restrictive covenants in real estate leases are not governed by Title 36a but governed by common law.

LEASING (Continued)

- 5/8/2000 Connecticut bank may enter into a mortgage origination outsourcing arrangement with an affiliated non-depository broker, lease space to such broker, and share clerical staff, on a temporary basis, subject to certain requirements and conditions.
- 5/6/1999 #1 Connecticut bank may lease space to third party insurance producer on a percentage lease basis in excess of fair market rents as long as the Connecticut bank has a producer's license.
- 3/5/1999 (1) Financial institution is exempt from registration as a broker-dealer; (2) non-dual employees are not acting as agents necessitating registration; and (3) Connecticut banks may lease space to broker-dealers on a percentage lease or nominal referral fee per customer basis.
- 4/23/1998 Connecticut banks and credit unions may lease space to broker-dealers on a percentage lease basis.
- 7/31/1996 #1 Connecticut bank may enter into a mortgage outsourcing arrangement with an unaffiliated nondepository first mortgage lender and broker, subject to certain requirements and conditions, and lease office space to such lender/broker.
- CU 10/1/1993 Credit unions cannot, pursuant to § 36-203d(c), invest in a service corporation for the purpose of leasing space to a provider of insurance and annuity products.
- CU 7/7/1993 Credit unions do not have power under Title 36 to enter into lease arrangements to provide insurance and securities services to its customers.
- 5/2/1989 #1 Permissibility of bank holding company subsidiary leasing space from Connecticut chartered banks to provide full service brokerage to the community.
- 6/8/1988 #1 While it is permissible for a bank to lease a part of its premises, approval is withheld where a bank director owns 25% of the stock of the proposed lessee, a mortgage lender, because an arm's length relationship with the lessee would be unlikely and the lease payments may violate 12 CFR § 215.4.
- 7/21/1987 #1 Leasing the space in an office approved pursuant to § 36-5a(d) to an unaffiliated entity does not require an application or further approvals from this office.
- 7/20/1987 Leasing subsidiary of an in-state bank is exempt from the prior approval requirement of § 36-5a(b) by § 36-5a(c)(3).
- 5/5/1987 Subsidiary of a bank holding company which engages in leasing activities prior to the grandfather date set forth in § 36-5a(c)(4) then seeks to engage in a new activity subsequent to grandfather date must apply for a new office pursuant to § 36-5a(d).
- 3/24/1987 #1 Bank which seeks to establish an office to engage in leasing activities pursuant to § 225.25(b)(5) of the FRB's Reg. Y will be engaging in banking business as defined in § 36-5a(b) and must comply with the provisions of § 36-5a(d).

- 4/26/1985 #1 Commercial bank may lease space to travel agency and acquire travel agency pursuant to § 36-96(13).
- 3/18/1985 Banking institutions may lease personal property.
- 12/11/1984 State chartered bank may lease space to an accounting firm for tax preparation services.
- 5/18/1984 State chartered depository institution may lease space to an insurance agency under certain conditions.
- 10/14/1983 Commercial lending and leasing are compatible with small loan business under § 36-231.
- CU 3/23/1983 #2 Credit union may enter into a lease arrangement with a computer software company to lease computers under certain conditions.

LEGISLATION

- 7/2/1981 #2 P.A. 81-128 (Deposit Reserves) explained.
- 6/30/1981 P.A. 81-193 (S&L powers) explained.
- 6/22/1981 P.A. 81-120 (savings bank powers) explained—revised memo.
- 6/19/1981 #2 P.A. 81-193 (public deposits) explained.
- 6/10/1981 #1 P.A. 81-120 (savings bank powers) explained.

LETTERS OF CREDIT

- 3/15/1991 #1 Department has no jurisdiction to adjudicate a person's dispute with or claim against a state chartered bank where it involves issues arising under a letter of credit.
- 12/14/1984 #1 State bank and trust company may pledge assets as collateral for a letter of credit.
- 6/7/1982 #1 S&L has authority to issue letters of credit if it has the authority to make the underlying loan.
- 2/9/1982 #1 Savings bank has authority to issue letters of credit if it has the authority to make the underlying loan.

LIABILITIES

- 9/9/1998 Discussion of permissibility of subordination provisions in subordinated notes issued by a branch of a foreign bank.
- 12/24/1990 § 36-131f does not permit a savings bank to pledge its assets as collateral to insure portions of depositors' accounts in excess of the FDIC limit.
- 6/26/1990 Savings banks may issue repurchase agreements pursuant to their implied authority to borrow money and pledge assets as collateral.
- 1/3/1986 #1 Commercial bank may not pledge assets to secure private deposits.
- 8/5/1982 State statutes governing borrowings by state bank and trust companies discussed.
- 5/18/1982 #2 Repurchase agreement is not a deposit.
- 7/15/1993 Preparation and electronic filing of federal income tax returns may be conducted on the same premises as a small loan business by an entity other than the small loan licensee pursuant to § 36-231 and § 36-239-8 of the Regs. The offering and arranging of refund anticipation loans may not be conducted on the same premises as a small loan business under § 36-231 where such activity would facilitate evasion of the maximum charges and interest provisions of Ch. 647.
- 2/9/1982 #2 Savings bank may accept commercial dda from any person who has purchased a repo from it; bank's repo creates a "commercial, corporate or business loan relationship."
- 3/26/1981 #2 Savings banks may issue repurchase agreements.
- 3/23/1981 #3 Savings banks may issue repurchase agreements.
- 4/21/1980 #1 Depository institutions may pledge assets as collateral for loans made to it.
- 12/18/1979 Borrowing money from Sallie Mae and pledging student loans to secure the borrowings do not require the Commissioner's approval.
- 12/14/1979 Bank's immediate acceptance of payment, on which it will pay interest, for its sale of mortgage loans which will be delivered subsequently, should be categorized as a borrowing until delivery of the mortgages.
- 11/28/1979 One guaranty by bank does not constitute engaging in the business of a surety; escrow agreement which refers to escrow agent (i.e. bank) as "surety" does not, by itself, make escrow agent a surety.
- 5/15/1978 Bank may issue repurchase agreement to its trust department; considerations discussed.

LIQUIDATION/BANKRUPTCY/RECEIVERSHIP

- 1/5/1996 Commissioner does not have authority under Title 36a to declare that a trustee position became vacant when the bank/trustee was placed in receivership.
- 12/14/1993 While the Commissioner did not seek the forfeiture of an insolvent bank's charter, the FDIC, as receiver, may have proceeded under §§ 36-50 and 36-51 and the charter may have been forfeited pursuant to § 36-52.
- 7/6/1992 "Capital stock bank" as used in § 36-51(a) includes a capital stock S&L; thus, claims of depositors of a state capital stock S&L placed in receivership would have priority over claims of general creditors.

LOANS

- 10/17/2016 #1 A wholly-owned subsidiary of an Ohio financial planning company that finances life insurance premiums solely for clients of its parent for loans greater than $100,000 at interest rates that will not exceed any state usury limit does not need to obtain any regulatory approvals from the Department.
- 12/2/2014 Company that advances a maximum of $500 to taxpayers in connection with a refund anticipation program and receives a $27 fee as a requirement for making such advance would be required to obtain a small loan lender license in Connecticut.
- 8/28/2014 Persons brokering commercial loans in the amount or value of $15,000 or less would be required to obtain small loan lender license.
- 1/10/2008 (No longer valid; see advertising and offering prohibitions in § 36a-556) Company that markets student loans does not have to be licensed as a small loan lender or a mortgage lender since it does not make loans nor does it have to be licensed as a mortgage broker since the loans are not secured by a mortgage on real property.
- 10/1/2007 Connecticut small loan licensee is authorized to conduct its small loan business in association with and in the offices where the deposit business of an out-of-state bank with branches in Connecticut is solicited, subject to certain conditions.
- 1/10/2001 Loan application taken on the Internet is filed when completed and submitted on the designated web page by the applicant. The "in writing" and "signature" requirements of various state statutes relating to loan transactions would be satisfied if there is compliance with the federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act.
- 11/30/1999 Title 36a does not contain any provision that requires a bank to send a notice of default, obtain a judgment or file a claim against a decedent's estate prior to removing funds from the decedent's account at such bank in reliance on an off-set provision in a loan agreement.

LOANS (Continued)

- 10/29/1999 #1 Decision whether to make a particular loan is a business decision that falls within the prerogative of the lender, as long as the lender does not discriminate against an applicant on a prohibited basis.
- CU 11/4/1998 Connecticut credit union may not purchase a loan portfolio from the Mashantucket Pequot Tribe pursuant to § 36a-441(a)(15).
- CU 4/24/1998 Pursuant to § 36a-441(a)(16), a Connecticut credit union may only sell a participating interest in an outstanding loan to another Connecticut credit union.
- 3/24/1998 Licensing and other requirements applicable to the extension of credit through an open-end credit card product.
- 9/17/1996 #1 Department will not interpret § 49-2 to include equity credit lines that do not literally comply with the statute for the purposes of § 36a-261(h)(2)(A).
- 8/17/1994 Pursuant to § 36-99(h)(2), as amended by P.A. 94-122, home equity lines of credit classified as mortgage loans, which neither provide for amortization of principal and interest nor meet the requirements of § 49-2(c), will be considered “nonconforming” loans.
- 2/3/1994 Out-of-state nonprofit religious association that establishes a revolving fund program whereby funds received from Connecticut church members in return for a promissory note and interest payments are deposited in a revolving fund and are used to make loans to member churches and church schools to finance building projects is not subject to any provision of Title 36 with respect to the activities of depository institutions or licensing requirements to make such loans.
- 7/22/1993 #2 § 36-423 acquisition statement is required to be filed by a bank which proposes to acquire more than 10% of the stock of a Connecticut bank holding company, which stock was pledged as collateral for a loan now in default.
- 6/6/1990 Offering of purchase money financing to enable the purchase of campsites secured by a leasehold interest that are restricted to recreational and vacation use would not be considered a residential first mortgage loan pursuant to § 36-440.
- 3/19/1990 #1 Credit cards issued to hospitals’ and physicians’ patients to finance unpaid balances must comply with § 42-133c and Ch. 657.
- 12/13/1989 No licensing requirements for a nonbanking corporation that will make loans to Connecticut corporations from outside Connecticut.
- 11/27/1989 All banking transactions must be suspended during a bank holiday.
- CU 8/4/1989 State chartered credit unions may issue corporate credit cards under certain conditions.

LOANS (Continued)

- CU 11/22/1988 Credit union may promote an auto leasing program offered by a leasing company for which the credit union would provide financing provided certain conditions are met.
- 10/25/1988 Chs. 647 and 657 and §§ 36-5a and 42-133c may apply to credit card and credit advance programs being offered by mail by out-of-state financial institutions.
- 5/19/1988 #2 Loans by a trust administered by a bank secured by assets of the trust which may include such bank's stock does not violate the provisions § 36-68.
- 11/23/1987 Department will not intervene in private dispute re interest payments under a loan agreement.
- 8/5/1986 Lending institution has right to select its own attorney.
- CU 4/3/1986 Department will not address issue of whether a credit union may hold money in an IRA until delinquent loans with the credit union have been satisfied while the matter is in litigation.
- CU 5/10/1985 Reacquisition of loans from CUSIC, the previous transfer of which was to enable the credit union to qualify for federal share insurance and constituted an assignment of collateral with an underlying obligation to pay off the account, is not barred by § 36-198(r).
- CU 2/8/1985 New York-chartered credit union is not subject to § 36-206(a), governing the maximum interest rate. Department takes no position re need for such credit union to be licensed since the credit union does not do business in Connecticut by virtue of making loans to members in Connecticut where loans are originated and payments are credited in New York.
- 11/16/1984 No statutory provisions prohibiting savings banks, S&Ls and state bank and trust companies from offering balloon note financing under certain conditions.
- 9/21/1984 Demand loans to owners of cooperative apartments which are secured by the pledge of shares of stock in the cooperative corporation are classified as secured loans.
- CU 8/22/1984 Credit union can provide and waive origination fees for its full-time employees.
- CU 8/20/1984 Any loan policy adopted by the board of a credit union or guidelines adopted by a credit committee must be in writing. Commissioner may require periodic updates of open-end loan applications.
- 7/27/1984 #1 Savings banks may close loans at unaffiliated nonbank corporations.
- 7/2/1984 #1 § 49-2(c) does not clearly authorize consumer revolving loans; Department will consider various factors to determine if loans were made in a safe and sound manner.

LOANS (Continued)

- 5/24/1984 #2 Neither a state bank and trust company nor a savings bank may make loans to its executive officers for the purpose of having those loans used to pay premiums on life insurance policies.
- CU 7/20/1983 #2 6-year statute of limitations applies to the collection of loans.
- CU 1/31/1983 Credit union has the authority to set loan policies governing the extension of credit to members and to deny loan applications. Employees of an independent contractor do not come within the field of credit union membership.
- CU 12/16/1982 #2 Although Ch. 646 does not specifically preclude a credit union from varying the original terms of loan repayment, the Department encourages credit unions to refrain from renegotiating loans to avoid delinquency.
- CU 11/17/1982 State-chartered credit union may service loans sold to the Connecticut CUSIC.
- CU 11/8/1982 #3 Credit unions may not rely on § 36-198(d), 36-198(j), 36-198(f) or 36-198(g)(4) to effect federal funds transactions.
- 9/22/1982 #2 State bank and trust company is prohibited from accepting its own stock as collateral for any loan which it makes.
- CU 9/15/1982 #2 Credit unions may impose late charges on members whose loans are delinquent pursuant to § 36-198(d).
- CU 9/14/1982 #2 (Superseded by 8/22/1984) Department does not sanction the practice of offering lower loan rates to credit union employees as an employee benefit.
- 5/27/1982 #1 Savings bank may make installment loans with a variable number of regularly scheduled installments.
- 12/9/1981 #2 Savings bank may make variable rate and balloon installment loans.
- 10/1/1981 Repossession of a gravestone after default allowed under § 42a-9-503.
- 3/23/1981 #2 “Loan-splitting” permissible between specific loan authority and leeway for the excess.
- 11/9/1979 Approved attorneys list not illegal, Department cannot prohibit.
- 10/5/1979 #1 Overdrafts are extensions of credit and their permissibility depends on bank’s lending authority.
- 7/27/1979 Savings banks may discount charge card sales slips for merchants using a credit ledger account or savings account method.

LOANS (Continued)

- 5/24/1979 Savings bank may make SBA loans under leeway authority.
- 2/9/1978 Closing a loan on a legal holiday under certain circumstances is permissible.

LOANS—Collections

- 8/22/2018 The Department takes a “no action” position concerning the requirement that any Connecticut activity by consumer collection agency licensees be conducted from a “state” for the period of October 1, 2018 to December 31, 2018 when such entities hold a valid license for such activity through December 31, 2018.
- 1/31/2018 The Department will take a “no action” position regarding the mortgage servicer licensing requirement in § 36a-718 for licensed consumer collection agencies whose servicing of residential mortgage loans is limited to receiving payments from Connecticut consumer debtors on delinquent or defaulted residential mortgage loan debt for a third party or such person’s own account if the indebtedness was acquired from another person and the indebtedness was either delinquent or in default at the time it was acquired; however, consumer collection agencies remain subject to all other requirements and standards imposed on mortgage servicers pursuant to §§ 36a-715 to 36a-719/, as applicable.
- 8/18/2015 Federal savings association with its principal office outside of Connecticut would not come within definition of a “consumer collection agency” and would not need to obtain a consumer collection agency license.
- 11/25/2013 #1 Placement of debts with a consumer collection agency for purposes of collection would not run afoul of the prohibition on receiving assignments as a third party of claims for purposes of collection contained in § 36a-805(a)(3); a debt buyer may not directly attempt to collect on purchased debt unless such debt buyer first obtains a consumer collection agency license.
- 6/12/2013 #2 Whether interest may be added to past due accounts by a consumer collection agency.
- 5/2/2013 When there is an “overpayment” of a debt the Department expects a consumer collection agency to refund the “overpayment” to the debtor and the Department would take a no-action position with respect to a potential violation of § 36a-809-7(b) of the Regs.
- 4/19/2012 #1 Department is not aware of any exception to the prohibition on adding collection fees contained in § 36a-805(a)(13).
- 12/14/2011 Law firm is not excluded from the definition of “consumer collection agency” based upon the fact that a member of the Connecticut bar is “of counsel” to the law firm.

- 2/22/1995 #1 Imposing a 30% surcharge for the collection of delinquent property taxes may constitute a violation of § 36a-805 for charging a collection fee in excess of 15% of the amount actually collected on the debt.

- 8/24/1994 #1 Discussion of application of §§ 42-127a(a), 42-131(1) and (2), and 42-131a(a) to out-of-state attorneys who are not members of the Connecticut Bar and who collect debts from consumer debtors in Connecticut.
- 5/20/1994 #1 Public television and radio telefunding activities do not fall within definition of “consumer collection agency” under § 42-127(2).
- 3/15/1993 Collection agency which collects solely for municipalities is not required to be licensed as a consumer collection agency.
- 11/18/1985 #1 Connecticut law does not restrict preauthorized transfer of funds between bank accounts owned by different parties.
- CU 7/20/1983 #2 6-year statute of limitations applies to the collection of loans.
- 2/7/1983 #1 Proposed amendment of rules and regs of the Department re collection practices of consumer collection agencies.
- 9/19/1979 Name of consumer debtor’s employer cannot appear on collection letter.
- 8/15/1979 Bank may not collect loans through consumer collection agency personnel who pretend to be bank personnel.

LOANS—Commercial Loans

- 4/4/2017 Discussion of referral fees paid in connection with mortgage loans.
- 1/15/2015 #1 Department has no requirements for a subsidiary of a bank to engage in commercial lending in Connecticut without a physical presence in the state.
- 9/1/2011 § 36a-261(s) does not authorize loans that become nonconforming after origination, but § 36a-261(f) allows a bank to extend the period for repayment of interest on a loan, subject to review by the Department.
- 3/15/1991 #2 No licensure is required by the Department for a corporation engaging in the business of making “floor plan” loans and working capital loans to motor vehicle dealers.
- 5/19/1988 #1 Small loan law on its face applies to a corporation which extends credit to commercial borrowers.
- 5/20/1987 #3 § 36-131a limits capital investments in subsidiaries and does not limit loans to subsidiaries which is governed by § 36-97b(b).
- 8/21/1985 #1 § 36-97b allows savings banks to invest up to 10% of its assets in commercial loans provided investments made to any one obligor shall not exceed 15% of the aggregate surplus accounts of the bank.

LOANS—Commercial Loans (Continued)

- 5/30/1984 #1 Nonbank subsidiary of an out-of-state bank holding company that makes conventional commercial real estate loans in Connecticut secured by mortgages on commercial real estate located in Connecticut is not transacting business in violation of § 36-5a(a).

- 11/17/2003 #2 Application of § 36a-262 to related LLCs and their members.
- 11/1/2002 Where a bank acts as a liquidity provider and buys from investors certificates issued as part of the bank's credit card receivables securitization, each of the original borrowers to whom the bank issued credit cards would be an obligor to the bank for purposes of § 36a-262(a).
- 3/28/2000 Loan secured by a leasehold interest in real property and which is insured by a mortgage title policy insuring the first priority of Connecticut bank's mortgage is made in conformance with § 36a-262(g).
- 6/6/1996 #2 Mortgage loan to a commercial borrower, secured by first mortgages on several underlying parcels of real estate, assignments from the borrower to the bank of all of the borrower's interest in plans relating to any proposed construction on the parcels, and assignment of the purchase contracts would be subject to the 15% limit for unsecured loans pursuant to § 36a-262(a) and would not be considered to be a loan secured by a mortgage on real estate under § 36a-262(g).
- 8/19/1988 Survey of Connecticut laws governing investments by state-chartered banks.
- 9/2/1986 Personal guarantee of a loan is an indirect liability of the guarantor within the meaning of § 36-65(1) which concerns the limits on the liabilities of any one obligor.
- 4/17/1985 Policies behind imposing per-borrower lending limits are based on considerations of safety and soundness.
- 2/5/1985 Memorandum listing the amount of assets that can be loaned to an individual or entity from a state banking institution.
- 8/3/1983 #1 Interpretation P.A. 83-274 amending § 36-65 and P.A. 83-131 amending § 36-66.
- 7/21/1983 #1 § 36-65, amended by P.A. 83-274, allows state bank and trust companies to lend one obligor up to 25% limit, no more than 15% to be in unsecured loans.
- 1/13/1983 State bank and trust may invest time deposits in a mortgage loan to one entity or borrower under § 36-99(5) and may make additional credit available to the same borrower or entity under § 36-65(1).

- 10/20/1982 #2 § 36-65 requires that liabilities of limited partnership are to be included in liabilities of limited partner only to extent of limited partner's investment in corporation.
- 3/23/1982 #2 If aggregate of bank's loans to Corporation X, and loans to Corporation Y which are secured by contracts with recourse against Corporation X, exceed 10% of bank's capital accounts, there is a violation of § 36-65(1).
- 10/6/1981 #2 Person's indemnification of guarantor not included in legal lending limit to indemnifier if bank would make loan without indemnification.
- 8/3/1981 Loan by state bank and trust company which is fully secured by deposit at lending bank is nonetheless subject to bank's legal lending limit under § 36-65.
- 6/15/1981 In the "hypothetical" presented, outstanding balance of first mortgage note is not a liability of mortgagor to bank which makes wrap-around, second mortgage loan.
- 5/21/1981 Dealer's agreement to purchase collateral which secures the obligation of a maker to a state bank and trust company does not make that dealer an "obligor" of the bank.
- 4/2/1981 Borrower who takes title to property "subject to" a mortgage to a bank is not an "obligor" to that bank for the amount of that mortgage.
- 6/8/1979 Bank may exceed legal lending limit to finance its sale of foreclosed real estate to buyer.

LOANS—Mortgage Loans

- 4/4/2017 Discussion of referral fees paid in connection with mortgage loans.
- 7/3/2014 No provisions in Title 36a address the actions of mortgagees in handling the proceeds of insurance claims, including a mortgagee's obligation (or lack thereof) to communicate with public adjusters and disbursement of funds.
- 11/15/2013 #1 § 49-6d(b) requires that the § 49-6d(a) notice a creditor must give to a consumer debtor be given to and acknowledged by the debtor when a mortgage loan application is filed.
- 6/12/2013 #1 Company making loans to contractors who rehab residential and commercial buildings, where no contractor would occupy any residential dwelling they rehab, would not be making "residential mortgage loans" as defined in § 36a-485(24).
- 9/1/2011 § 36a-261(s) does not authorize loans that become nonconforming after origination, but § 36a-261(f) allows a bank to extend the period for repayment of interest on a loan, subject to review by the Department.

- 1/19/2006 In the context of “no cost” loans and loan transactions in which the applicant has not paid for the appraisal, a financial institution “indirectly” imposes the appraisal fee within the meaning of § 36a-755(b) when such institution expects the applicant to pay the appraiser directly.
- 9/6/2005 #1 Mortgagees that require insurance in excess of the replacement cost of the dwelling or other structures on the property as a condition for granting the mortgage would be in violation of § 36a-757.
- 5/6/2005 § 49-2(c) is not within the jurisdiction of the Department; court would determine whether an agreement between a mortgagor and mortgagee comes within the definition of “consumer revolving loan” and whether future advances made under an open-end mortgage meet the requirements of § 49-2(c) and are secured equally as the debts secured at the time of the recording of the mortgage.
- 3/21/2005 Commissioner has determined, pursuant to § 36a-261(h)(2)(D), that Connecticut banks may make residential mortgage loans with an interest-only period not to exceed 10 years as a class of loans that need not be subject to the amortization requirement of § 36a-261(h), provided such loans shall require that the interest-only period plus amortization period not exceed the statutory limit of 42 years.
- 10/25/2002 § 49-10a requires a mortgagee to provide a payoff statement in writing on or before the date specified in the request if the request is at least 10 business days from the date of the mortgagee’s receipt of the request.
- 2/21/2002 § 49-2a re payment of interest on escrow accounts is preempted with respect to a federal savings association unless there is a contractual provision requiring payment of such interest.
- 10/29/2001 §§ 49-6d(2) and 49-6d(3) require a creditor to notify a consumer debtor in writing when a mortgage loan application is filed that the debtor is not required to be represented by the creditor’s attorney and that the debtor may waive the right to be represented by an attorney.
- 10/26/2001 Under P.A. 01-34, the definition of “prepaid finance charge” excludes all fees and charges that may be excluded from “finance charge” under Reg. Z, as well as the time-price differential; time-price differential exclusion was intended to encompass “odd day’s interest”.
- 10/26/2001 For purposes of § 13 of P.A. 01-34, a lender may subtract the amount of a PMI or FHA premium rebate when calculating the “aggregate” of the prepaid finance charges paid in connection with a current refinancing and previous financing.
- 3/8/2000 No prohibition on the use of a debit card to access a home equity line of credit (“HELOC”). However, if the debit card were deemed to be an “instrument or device” that is similar to a credit card within the meaning of § 49-2(c), the HELOC would fall outside the definition of consumer revolving loan and the mortgagee would lose the benefit of the safe harbor afforded by the statute.

- 4/16/1986 Federal savings bank is not required to file a § 36-423 acquisition statement during its holding company formation.
- 12/6/1985 #2 Transaction involving the acquisition of a bank and the formation of a holding company is exempt from filing under § 36-423 only “to the extent” that is subject to federal law; therefore, if Connecticut law covers an aspect of the transaction which is not covered by federal law, a filing is required under the section.
- 10/25/1985 #2 Merger of subsidiaries, where one is a subsidiary that has done business in Connecticut prior to 6/1/1984 and is grandfathered pursuant to § 36-5a(c)(4) and the other is an out-of-state company, does not require the grandfathered office to obtain new approval as long as its activities are not changed or expanded in any way.
- 10/25/1985 #1 § 36-30 does not require that stockholder approval of an institution selling part of its assets be obtained prior to an agreement to sell but stockholder approval must be obtained prior to the consummation of the sale.
- 6/12/1985 Acquisition statement must be filed under § 36-423 by director of bank wishing to acquire 20% of bank’s stock.
- 3/5/1985 #2 For purposes of § 36-423, outstanding convertible debentures are not considered outstanding voting securities in determining whether a person has acquired more than 10% of the voting stock of a bank.
- 11/19/1984 Proposed acquisition of 25% of all issued and outstanding shares of a bank in organization requires filing of an acquisition statement under § 36-423.
- 5/8/1984 Foreign person may acquire a national banking association in Connecticut.

- 12/16/1983 (Amended by P.A. 91-189) § 36-423(a) imposes no restrictions on the acquisition on securities beyond attaining of 10% beneficial ownership status.
- 12/9/1983 #2 Commissioner gives notice of public hearing under § 36-425(b).
- 11/22/1983 #2 Waiver of full audited financial information under § 36-423(b) permitted where unduly burdensome, costly and consuming.
- 10/25/1983 #1 S&L in organization does not “issue” stock when it obtains subscriptions for it § 36-429(e).
- 7/11/1983 (Amended by P.A. 91-189) Additional approval not required when the beneficial owner of more than 10% increases his holdings.
- 11/8/1982 #2 State-chartered institution that is purchasing assets and assuming liabilities of federally-chartered institution under § 36-30 must obtain approval of the Commissioner.
- 11/8/1982 #1 Three “routes” for acquisition of 100% of stock of finance company by savings bank.
- 8/11/1982 Banking institution may buy branch under § 36-30 and not be subject to home office protection; banking institutions must use § 36-30 (i.e. not Title 33) for acquisitions of assets and business.
- 8/10/1982 Banking institution may sell branch and then establish new branch in that town.
- 7/22/1982 Provisions of state law governing the voting requirements under § 36-30 do not apply to a federally-chartered institution.
- 6/1/1982 Banking institution may buy branch under § 36-30 and not be subject to home office protection.
- 5/27/1982 #2 Savings bank may acquire the assets, business and stock of a federal S&L.
- 3/16/1982 § 36-423 of Bank Acquisition Act applies to acquisition of shares in open market by partnership.
- 11/13/1981 Savings bank and mutual S&L may merge under Title 33.
- CU 11/10/1981 Commissioner’s § 36-233c(d) ability to waive a credit union’s membership vote on merger approval is intended for use only when a credit union is on the verge of financial collapse and cannot be applied when a credit union is experiencing a temporary economic setback.
- 10/6/1981 Discussion of various types of inter-industry and interstate mergers and acquisitions.
- 8/14/1981 #4 Application form to form and merge a phantom bank.

- 12/15/1980DR Declaratory ruling that savings bank may operate in open and closed towns branches it acquires in a § 36-30 acquisition.
- 3/21/1980 Consolidating savings banks may choose any one of their charters for the resulting bank.
- 10/17/1979 Meaning of “beneficial owner” in § 36-423 of Bank Acquisition Act.

MONEY TRANSMISSION

- 12/19/2019 Company that operates virtual currency kiosks, which are stationary, unattended devices within the definition of “automated teller machine”, but that do not involve a bank or financial institution, and essentially act as vending machines, limited to depositing cash into the kiosks and immediately receiving virtual currency from the kiosks’ inventory in return, not utilizing an exchange or other payment system, does not require licensure under the Money Transmission Act.
- 5/15/2019 #2 Company offering the purchase and sale of virtual currency through its kiosk-based and Internet-based services, where there is a direct and immediate exchange of currency with the inventory of the company kiosk and there is no bank, financial institution or payment system involved in any part of the transaction, is not required to obtain licensure under the Money Transmission Act and the kiosk does not constitute an ATM.
- 5/15/2019 #1 Program manager for prepaid cards and related accounts distributed by licensed gaming entities to their patrons is not required to obtain licensure under the Money Transmission Act because it does not issue the prepaid cards, receive, exercise control over or have access to the funds at any point in time, and does not solicit or advertise the cards; thus, it is not performing money transmission activities or advertising or soliciting such services within the meaning of § 36a-597(a).
- 3/19/2019 Company offers software program for payment of various customer bills through a centralized website platform, which allows customers to enroll in the program and enter bill and payment information and payment instruction. Company has agreement with a state-chartered banking institution, exempt under § 36a-709, to perform money transmission activities; customers deposit money directly to such institution through the platform. Although company does not handle or exercise control over funds at any point during the transaction, it does provide marketing for the money transmission services. Because § 36a-597(a) requires licensure for person who advertise or solicit money transmission services, licensure is required.
- 2/22/2019 #2 Company offering custody and related transaction services for institutional clients, which holds or transmits virtual currency on behalf of Connecticut residents, are engaging in money transmission in this state and requires licensure under the Money Transmission Act. The exemptions from licensure under § 36a-609 do not extend to those entities subject to additional regulation and oversight by virtue of registration as a broker-dealer with the Department and SEC and membership in FINRA.

- 2/22/2019 #1 New York trust company offering custodial and exchange related services, including holding cash and bitcoin as agent and facilitating the trading of virtual currency and fiat currency on behalf of Connecticut residents, is engaging in money transmission in this state and requires licensure under the Money Transmission Act even if it does not have a physical presence in the state. Connecticut does not recognize an exemption from licensure for trust companies.
- 2/21/2019 Digital currency exchanges which hold or transmit fiat or virtual currency on behalf of Connecticut residents are engaging in money transmission in this state and require licensure under the Money Transmission Act. The exemptions from licensure under § 36a-609 do not extend to those entities subject to additional regulation and oversight by virtue of registration as a broker-dealer with the Department and SEC and membership in FINRA.
- 2/1/2019 Bitcoin ATMs, which are stationary, unattended devices within the definition of “automated teller machine”, but that do not involve a bank or financial institution, and essentially act as vending machines, limited to depositing cash into the bitcoin ATM and receiving bitcoin from the machine’s inventory in return, not utilizing an exchange or other payment system, do not require licensure under the Money Transmission Act.
- 1/15/2019 Digital currency exchanges which hold or transmit fiat or virtual currency on behalf of Connecticut residents are engaging in money transmission in this state and require licensure under the Money Transmission Act.
- 11/1/2018 A company that establishes and operates stationary kiosks in this state for the purpose of exchanging fiat money for bitcoin and vice versa that operate as vending machines would not be engaged in the business of money transmission pursuant to § 36a-597(a) and would not be required to obtain a money transmission license.
- 8/22/2018 The Department takes a “no action” position concerning the requirement that any Connecticut activity by money transmitter licensees be conducted from a “state” for the period of October 1, 2018 to December 31, 2018 when such entities hold a valid license for such activity through December 31, 2018.
- 10/24/2017 The Department takes a no-action position with respect to the money transmitter licensure requirement for persons who receive money on behalf of another person pursuant to a principal-agent relationship that satisfies certain conditions.
- 9/21/2017 A merchant clearing house limited liability company would require licensure as a money transmitter if it issued vouchers or stored value redeemable for goods and services of its merchant members. The merchant clearing house would also require money transmission licensure if it received money or monetary value to settle members’ accounts for goods and services traded among merchant members.
- 7/11/2016 Certain bitcoin exchange-related services conducted through the mail and Internet with Connecticut persons require licensure under the Money Transmission Act.

- 1/6/2016 Persons engaged in activities that meet the definitions of “debt adjustment” and “money transmission” are required to obtain both licenses unless exempt from licensure.
- 8/21/2015 Payroll processing company would be engaged in the business of money transmission.
- 8/11/2015 Licensing requirements for a company that fulfills orders to purchase foreign currency made by customers of banks and credit unions located in Connecticut.
- 7/16/2015 Company that provides a web portal to banks and money transmitters for the transmission of money which goes directly into the bank account of bank in India, would not need a money transmission license in Connecticut because it would not be receiving any of the money to be transmitted.
- 4/2/2015 Since trust companies are not expressly exempt from licensure to engage in money transmission under § 36a-609(1), such companies would need to obtain a license to transfer payments between business customers and vendors.
- 8/14/2014 To the extent that payments with respect to a travel account would not flow through the parent of a subsidiary company, the parent would not need to obtain a money transmission license, but the subsidiary company would need to be licensed. (See also 8/1/2014 opinion.)
- 8/1/2014 Licensing requirements under § 36a-597 for a parent and its subsidiary in connection with the transmission of payments to travel accounts related to business travel account products issued by the subsidiary on behalf of the parent. (See also 8/14/2014 opinion.)
- 5/13/2014 Program manager who provides certain management, administrative and processing services on behalf of a bank who facilitates a company’s employee incentive payment program through the issuance of MasterCard-branded debit cards that does not actually or constructively receive, take possession or custody of or otherwise hold or transmit any card funds would not be engaged in the business of money transmission. (See also 4/4/2014 opinion.)
- 4/4/2014 Bank that holds funds in connection with its facilitation of a company’s employee incentive payment program through the issuance of MasterCard-branded debit cards would not be engaged in the business of money transmission and may avail itself of the licensing exemption pursuant to § 36a-609(1). (See also 5/13/2014 opinion.)
- 11/15/2013 #2 To the extent that a provider of bill payment services engages in the receipt and remittance of funds, it would be engaged in the business of money transmission and must obtain a license.
- 10/9/2013 Exemption from the money transmitter licensing requirements for financial institutions contained in § 36a-609(1) does not extend to wholly-owned subsidiaries.

- 8/9/2013 Foreign bank with a licensed branch in New York, which is supervised and regulated by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York and the NY State Department of Financial Services but not federally insured, would not qualify for the license exemption under § 36a-609(1) and would need to obtain a money transmission license.
- 9/27/2012 A company with no physical presence in Connecticut engaged in the business of foreign currency exchange on behalf of Connecticut individuals and corporations where payments are made to overseas accounts is engaged in “money transmission” and would need to obtain a license under § 36a-597.
- 8/29/2012 Company that receives money or monetary value as an incident to a foreign currency exchange transaction, and transfers such money or monetary value, is required to get a license under § 36a-597(a) to engage in money transmission.
- 4/5/2011 (Rendered moot by 1/6/2016 opinion) Not the policy of the Department to require a licensed debt adjuster to be dually licensed to engage in the business of money transmission.
- 12/14/2010 Internet company that receives a buyer’s money and holds it until the buyer is satisfied with the items purchased before sending the funds due to the seller would be required to obtain a license to engage in the business of money transmission.
- 5/19/2010 Company that transmits funds to an inmate trust account, which funds may be received via the Internet, by telephone or in cash, is engaged in the business of money transmission and would be required to obtain a license under § 36a-600.
- 8/21/2009 #1 Company without a physical presence in Connecticut providing foreign exchange and international payment services to commercial clients in Connecticut is required to obtain a license to engage in the business of money transmission.
- 7/23/2008 Futures commission merchant specializing in “forex” transactions is not required to obtain a license to engage in the business of money transmission.
- 5/27/2008 Department will take a no-action position with respect to the requirement for GE Money Bank or Wal-Mart to obtain a license to engage in the business of issuing Connecticut payment instruments in order to issue prepaid cards. On the other hand, if Green Dot obtains a license to engage in the business of money transmission and to engage in the business of issuing Connecticut payment instruments, Wal-Mart would not be required to obtain such a license to issue Green Dot load packs and to reload pre-paid cards.
- 2/27/2008 Company that provides a central database structure and software application tools for horsemen and race tracks that allow horsemen to give instructions to transfer funds between accounts is not engaging in the business of money transmission in Connecticut where the transfers would be handled by a licensed money transmitter.

- 12/19/2007 Company that facilitates electronic payments is engaging in the business of money transmission under § 36a-596(7) because it may hold funds in its accounts before they are sent to their intended payees and is subject to licensure.
- 3/3/2006 #5 Business that does not maintain a physical presence in Connecticut or conduct business with consumers in Connecticut, but provides foreign exchange and international payment services to commercial clients located in Connecticut, is engaging in money transmission as defined in § 36a-596(7) and would need to obtain a license as provided in § 36a-597.
- 3/3/2006 #3 Company that transmits funds on behalf of business customers located in Connecticut would be engaging in money transmission as defined in § 36a-596(7) and would need to obtain a license as provided in § 36a-597.
- 3/3/2006 #2 Connecticut limited liability company that does not receive money or monetary value from Connecticut residents, but operates a money transfer operation between foreign countries would be engaging in money transmission as defined in § 36a-596(7) and would need to obtain a money transmitter license.
- 3/3/2006 #1 Out-of-state bank that uses agents that are not federally-insured banks, out-of-state banks, Connecticut credit unions, federal credit unions or out-of-state credit unions to receive money to be transmitted by the out-of-state bank, would not be able to avail itself of the exemption from licensure as a money transmitter contained in § 36a-609(1) and would need to obtain a license as provided in § 36a-597.
- 6/3/2004 Business that does not collect funds from customers prior to transmitting funds to a payee, but is reimbursed from the customer's bank account after it has paid the customer's creditor, is engaged in the business of transmitting money, which constitutes "money transmission" as defined by § 36a-596(7) and needs to obtain a license as provided in § 36a-597.
- 1/7/1999 #1 Company that receives money for immediate transmission by facsimile, which is not licensed by the FCC to transmit money, cannot avail itself of the licensing exemption under § 36a-609(3).
- 5/28/1998 #2 Incorporated telegraph company that issues money orders, drafts and other instruments would not be exempt from the Money Order and Travelers Check Licensees Act.
- 4/14/1997 Prepaid plastic "electronic travelers cheque" that does not contain a provision for specimen signatures is not a "travelers check" within the meaning of § 36a-596(10) nor an "instrument" within the meaning of § 36a-596(2).

- 5/22/1996 Money order/travelers check licensee may invest in repurchase agreements, provided that the principal and interest of the repurchase agreements are irrevocably secured by either (1) the general obligations of the U.S. or Connecticut or (2) securities that are guaranteed fully as to principal and interest by the U.S. or Connecticut, or for which the full faith and credit of the U.S. or Connecticut is pledged for the payment of principal and interest.
- 2/9/1996 Company that provides payroll processing services to employers for a fee, issues checks to the employers' employees drawn on a company account containing advance payments from the employers, and/or makes direct deposit distributions into the accounts of the such employees, would not be engaged in the business of issuing Connecticut instruments and would not need to obtain a license under § 36a-597.
- 4/3/1995 #2 Company that receives money only for immediate transmission by telegraph or cable, but is not licensed with the FCC as a telegraph or cable company, cannot avail itself of the licensing exemption under § 36a-609(3).
- CU 2/7/1994 Central credit union is not exempt from licensing and bonding provisions of Ch. 662b.
- 4/23/1993 Connecticut corporation that would engage in forwarding funds for a fee and cashing checks may be required to obtain a license pursuant to § 36-532 and Ch. 662d.
- 12/6/1991 Company that provides a money transfer service to the trucking industry in which the company issues drafts and authorizes the cashing of those drafts at truck stops in Connecticut would be required to be licensed.
- 12/5/1991 #1 To qualify for the licensing exemption under § 36-545(c), an incorporated telegraph or cable company must transmit funds only by telegraph or cable.
- 7/15/1991 State banking law does not prohibit the purchase of travelers checks with a credit card where checks are immediately placed in a deposit account and the tendering of payment to the credit card issuer in satisfaction of the debt incurred through the purchase of the checks occurs subsequent to the deposit.
- 1/9/1991 Separate approval is not necessary under § 36-531(i)(1)(I) for a borrowing agreement to be considered a permissible investment after a merger.
- 11/16/1990 Approval of borrowing agreement between parent company and its subsidiary as permissible investment under § 36-531(i)(I).
- 3/13/1990 No prohibition against one corporation engaging in both the money order and check cashing businesses at the same location, but both need separate licenses and must maintain separate records.
- 6/14/1989 Not-for-profit corporation must meet $1M minimum net worth requirement under § 36-540.

- 7/26/1988 Company that receives money orders and cash and does not immediately transmit the funds is not exempt from the requirements of the Money Order and Travelers Check Licensees Act, § 36-530 et seq.
- 1/29/1987 Whether separate licenses are required for issuance of money orders and travelers checks under Ch. 662b.
- 10/16/1986 Whether separate licenses are required for issuance of money orders and travelers checks under Ch. 662b.
- 8/4/1986 Money transfer services utilizing a payment instrument similar to a money order.
- 3/24/1986 #2 Company engaged in business of cashing checks would have to obtain license to sell money orders pursuant to Ch. 662b; however, the transmission of funds via Western Union Services would be exempt from such requirements.
- 11/25/1985 #1 Company engaged in the business of receiving money from remitters in other states and Canadian provinces for the purpose of transmitting the money to beneficiaries located primarily in Caribbean area countries would be required to obtain a license to conduct its business.
- 1/14/1985 No exemption for agent or subagent of licensee from being licensed even though issuer deposits are insured by FDIC.
- 12/7/1984 #2 Issuing Connecticut instruments.
- 8/19/1983 One must be a licensee or agent or subsequent of licensee in order to engage in travelers check business.
- 6/25/1982 #2 As long as one joint issuer of travelers checks has $1M net worth, the net worth requirement of licensing statute is met; in determining amount of bond, each branch office of bank at which travelers checks are sold must be included.
- 11/6/1981 #1 Commissioner lacks authority to waive bonding requirements for licensee.
- 9/22/1981 #2 Licensee may include certain loans to its parent company as “permissible investment.”

MORTGAGE LENDERS AND BROKERS

- 4/29/2019 Construction lender making commercial mortgage loans exclusively to business entities for commercial purposes is not subject to § 36a-486(a) or mortgage servicer licensure requirements because there is no residential mortgage loan activity.

- 8/22/2018 The Department takes a “no action” position concerning the requirement that any Connecticut activity by mortgage lender, mortgage correspondent lender and mortgage broker licensees be conducted from a “state” for the period of October 1, 2018 to December 31, 2018 when such entities hold a valid license for such activity through December 31, 2018.
- 7/7/2017 #2 A mortgage correspondent lender utilizing its own line of credit to fund residential mortgage loans triggers mortgage lender licensure, except in connection with one limited exception.
- 4/4/2017 Discussion of referral fees paid in connection with mortgage loans.
- 11/30/2016 (See P.A. 17-38; added provisions re lead generators) Person who, for compensation or gain, or with the expectation of compensation or gain, takes financial information particular to a consumer or mortgage transaction and becomes the conduit between the consumer and the lender or broker, the person is acting in a broker or origination role and requires the applicable license.
- 11/28/2016 A company and its loan officers that make business purpose investment loans for residential property of 1 to 4 units whereby the borrowers do not occupy the properties as primary or secondary homes would not trigger mortgage licensing requirements for the company or its loan officers.
- 6/25/2015 Licensed mortgage lender that is acquired by an out-of-state bank and becomes a wholly-owned subsidiary of the bank will be exempt from mortgage lender licensure and its mortgage loan originators would be exempt from state-side licensing but would need to be registered.
- 10/7/2014 Federally-insured, out-of-state bank is exempt from Connecticut mortgage licensure requirements, but the loan must comport with all applicable Connecticut laws. Mortgage loan originator would also be exempt from licensing so long as the individual is a W-2 employee of the bank, acts on the bank’s behalf and registered with and maintains a unique identifier on NMLS.
- 11/25/2013 #2 Summary of § 36a-487 exemptions and branch licensure and notification requirements. Discussion of mortgage loan originator licensure requirements in a federally supervised entity. Discussion of related qualified individual/branch manager mortgage loan originator licensure requirements.
- 6/12/2013 #1 Company making loans to contractors who rehab residential and commercial buildings, where no contractor would occupy any residential dwelling they rehab, would not be making “residential mortgage loans” as defined in § 36a-485(24).
- 8/28/2012 Discussion of branch office and loan processor or underwriter licensing requirements for a licensed mortgage lender to provide other mortgage lenders loan processing or underwriting services at offices located within and outside the U.S.

- 3/16/2012 Corporation's residential mortgage program exclusively for the benefit of its employees qualifies the corporation for exemption from mortgage lender licensure under § 36a-487(b)(6) and no mortgage loan originator licenses are required despite the "taking of an application" where there is no expectation of compensation or gain.
- 3/8/2012 #2 (See P.A. 17-38; added provisions re lead generators) Information gatherer is "taking a residential mortgage loan application" under the facts presented and is required to obtain a mortgage broker license.
- 12/2/2011 #1 Out-of-state, FDIC-insured bank that originates and closes loans in Connecticut directly with no physical presence in Connecticut is exempt from licensing as a mortgage lender, mortgage correspondent lender or mortgage broker by § 36a-486. In addition, the bank would not run afoul of the general prohibition against a foreign banking corporation transacting business in this state under § 36a-425(a). If closing and funding locations are not held out as offices, the bank will not be establishing an office to conduct "banking business" within the meaning of § 36a-425 and would not require branch approval under § 36a-412.
- 5/27/2011 Subsidiary of an Illinois-chartered bank, of which the bank owns 51%, is not exempt from mortgage lender or broker licensure under § 36a-487. Mortgage loan originators who are either licensed or registered need unique identifiers on NMLS.
- 5/19/2011 Licensed mortgage loan originator working for both a professional employer organization and a mortgage licensee complies with § 36a-486(b)(1). Professional employer organization does not have to be licensed as a mortgage lender or broker in order to employ the licensed mortgage loan originator.
- 5/11/2011 (See P.A. 17-38; added provisions re lead generators) Company that offers software that allows users to view loan quotes from various mortgage lenders, collects information from users to allow a lender to make credit decisions, and conveys such information to a lender of the user's choosing would be required to obtain a mortgage broker license in Connecticut.
- 4/12/2011 Operating subsidiary of a federally-chartered, out-of-state bank is exempt from licensure under § 36a-487.
- 11/5/2010 To the extent employees of a company that assists lenders with obtaining information from borrowers in connection with loan modifications are taking applications and offering terms of residential mortgage loans, such employees would need to be licensed as mortgage loan originators and the company would need to obtain a mortgage broker license.
- 7/20/2010 An out-of-state, federally insured bank is exempt from mortgage lender licensing but must comply with Connecticut laws applicable to advertising, including the Truth-in-Lending Act.
- 3/22/2010 Entity appears to qualify as a federally-insured, out-of-state bank exempt from licensure under § 36a-487 and there are no notification requirements.

- 11/10/2009 Wholly-owned subsidiary of an FDIC-insured Utah chartered bank is not exempt from state licensure under § 36a-487. Registered mortgage loan originators who are employees will be exempt from state licensure under § 36a-486(b)(2) and attendant education and testing requirements in Connecticut.
- 12/19/2008 Company that makes and brokers loans on mobile homes located on leased land in Connecticut secured only by a UCC 1 filing on the mobile home and not by a mortgage on the leasehold interest is not required to be licensed as a mortgage lender or broker and its loan originators are not required to be licensed. Upon state implementation of the SAFE Act, licensure would be required.
- 8/7/2008 Out-of-state, state-chartered bank does not need a license to make residential mortgages in Connecticut.
- 4/8/2008 (See P.A. 17-38; added provisions re lead generators) Lead generator that has an online service that matches prospective borrowers with mortgage lenders or brokers and who receives a flat fee from lenders and brokers for each application would have to be licensed as a mortgage broker if prospective borrowers who complete the online questionnaire obtain mortgage loans.
- 1/31/2008 #1 Nonprofit public benefit corporation that makes loan programs available to lenders, but does not make mortgage loans, and provides consumer marketing, including a website, is not subject to first or secondary mortgage lender or broker licensure.
- 1/10/2008 (No longer valid; see advertising and offering prohibitions in § 36a-556) Company that markets student loans does not have to be licensed as a small loan lender or a mortgage lender since it does not make loans nor does it have to be licensed as a mortgage broker since the loans are not secured by a mortgage on real property.
- 4/21/2006 Company that wishes to conduct its mortgage brokerage and lending business under its corporate name and a d/b/a does not need to obtain separate licenses.
- 9/6/2005 #2 Person who purchases pools of home equity lines of credit would not need to be licensed as a first or secondary mortgage lender.
- 8/15/2005 Applicability of first and secondary mortgage lender licensing requirements to secondary market investments in partially drawn home equity lines of credit under various scenarios.
- 8/11/2005 National retailer that provides certain advertising services to a lender to promote a mortgage loan program does not come within the definition of “first mortgage broker” or “secondary mortgage broker”.
- 7/14/2005 Depository institution organized as an industrial bank under Utah law is an “out-of-state bank” as defined in § 36a-2(44) and is exempt from licensing as a nondepository first mortgage lender or broker under § 36a-487(1) and as a secondary mortgage lender or broker under § 36a-512(4).

- 6/22/2005 Real estate attorney who counsels borrowers on available loan products and negotiates rates and terms with lenders and receives a fee for such services would need to be licensed as a first or secondary mortgage broker.
- 6/3/2005 #2 Financial advisors of a company are required to be licensed as brokers where they discuss loan products with clients and refer them to a bank that is an affiliate of the company and receive compensation from the company if their clients obtain a loan from the affiliated bank. Financial management and financial activities do not satisfy the experience requirements for mortgage brokers under §§ 36a-488(a)(1) and 36a-513(a)(1).
- 6/3/2005 #1 Any location at which an originator regularly represents the licensee's interest by taking loan applications must be licensed. Determination has to be made on a case-by-case basis.
- 10/22/2004 #2 (See P.A. 17-38; added provisions re lead generators) Company that brings together mortgage lenders and borrowers through its website and receives compensation from the lenders for doing so would be required to be licensed as a mortgage broker.
- 9/3/2004 Corporate instrumentality of the District of Columbia which proposes to make secondary mortgage loans to borrowers whose household income does not exceed 140% of the median income for the area would not be exempt from licensure under § 36a-512(6) or 36a-512(7).
- 7/23/2004 Out-of-state bank that will have no offices in Connecticut and will not function as a depository in this state, but will make residential mortgage loans to borrowers in Connecticut from its offices in Georgia, is exempt from mortgage licensing requirements under §§ 36a-487(1) and 36a-512(4), but its wholly-owned subsidiary would be subject to licensing to engage in the business of making first and secondary mortgage loans or to act as a first or secondary mortgage broker in this state.
- 10/30/2003 Definition of "affiliate" for the purpose of § 13 of P.A. 01-34 (§ 36a-498a).
- 7/30/2002 Out-of-state bank is exempt from the first and secondary mortgage lender/broker licensing requirements. Department expresses no opinion as to whether the proposed activities of the bank constitute transacting business under the Connecticut Business Corporation Act or the Connecticut Revised Nonstock Corporation Act, or whether the bank is required to comply with § 33-920 or 33-1210.
- 3/27/2002 Out-of-state bank is exempt from the licensing requirements of the mortgage lending statutes under §§ 36a-487(1) and 36a-512(4).
- 12/17/2001 Connecticut law requires subsidiaries of federally-chartered banks to be licensed as first and secondary mortgage lenders. However, Department has taken a no-action position re licensure of operating subsidiaries of federal savings banks.

- 3/27/2000 #2 No action position on failure of operating subsidiary of federal savings bank to comply with licensing requirements of first and second mortgage lender/broker statutes.
- 3/6/1998 (Overruled by Wachovia Bank v. Burke, 414 F.3d 305 (2d Cir. 2005)) (Department policy modified in light of opinion of Attorney General.) Operating subsidiary of a federal savings bank that engages in the first and secondary mortgage business as lender and broker must comply with §§ 36a-486, 36a-511 and 36a-425, notwithstanding the OTS's claim of preemption.
- 11/18/1996 Operator of a computerized loan origination system who brings together lenders and borrowers, receives, processes and transmits loan applications through the Internet, has direct telephone contact with borrowers, and receives a fee from the borrowers is a "mortgage broker" for purposes of §§ 36a-485(3) and 36a-486(a).
- 6/26/1995 Depository institution organized and regulated as an industrial loan company under California law that makes loans and accepts deposits insured by the FDIC is an "out-of-state bank" under § 36a-2(40), and would be exempt from licensing as a nondepository first mortgage lender, a second mortgage lender, and a small loan lender under §§ 36a-487(1), 36a-512(4) and 36a-555, respectively.
- 1/17/1984 #1 Purchaser of already secondary mortgage receivables is not engaged in the secondary mortgage loan business under § 36-224b and no secondary mortgage lender license is required.
- 12/2/1993 Subscribers to a computerized mortgage information system would be required to obtain a mortgage broker license; however, operators, whose role is limited to maintaining the computer system, would not be required to obtain a mortgage broker license.
- 6/22/1992 Data communications network that links mortgage lenders with real estate companies and receives a fee only when a loan is successfully closed is a "mortgage broker" as defined in § 36-440(g) and must comply with Ch. 660a.
- 11/15/1991 Company arranging the financing of mobile homes where loans would be secured by a first mortgage on real estate leasehold and mobile home is a "mortgage broker" for "first mortgage loans" within the meaning of §§ 36-440(g) and 36-440(a), respectively. Foreign banking corporation may fund loans pursuant to § 36-440(g).
- 3/5/1986 Solicitation for home equity line of credit does not require a first mortgage license; it does, however, require a second mortgage license.
- 12/23/1985 Whether the activities of an entity constitute a business of making first mortgage loans within the meaning of P.A. 85-399.

- 11/1/1985 Wholly-owned subsidiary of a federal S&L only providing the funding and servicing on a loan, but is neither payee on the note nor issuer of the commitment, would not have to be licensed under P.A. 85-399 as these activities do not constitute the business of making first mortgage loans.
- 11/18/1983 Fee when secondary mortgage loan licensee grants loan in conjunction with broker is limited to 10% if broker is a “creditor.”
- 8/5/1983 § 36-224b does not require persons becoming subsequent holders of mortgage or promissory notes received in connection with secondary mortgage loans in ordinary course of business to be licensed.

MORTGAGE LOAN ORIGINATORS/LOAN PROCESSORS/UNDERWRITERS

- 8/22/2018 The Department takes a “no action” position concerning the requirement that any Connecticut activity by mortgage loan originator and loan processor or underwriter licenses be conducted from a “state” for the period of October 1, 2018 to December 31, 2018 when such individuals hold a valid license for such activity through December 31, 2018.
- 7/7/2017 #1 Third party loan processor/underwriter requirements and issues presented by overseas operations.
- 11/30/2016 (See P.A. 17-38; added provisions re lead generators) Person who, for compensation or gain, or with the expectation of compensation or gain, takes financial information particular to a consumer or mortgage transaction and becomes the conduit between the consumer and the lender or broker, the person is acting in a broker or origination role and requires the applicable license.
- 11/28/2016 A company and its loan officers that make business purpose investment loans for residential property of 1 to 4 units whereby the borrowers do not occupy the properties as primary or secondary homes would not trigger mortgage licensing requirements for the company or its loan officers.
- 6/25/2015 Licensed mortgage lender that is acquired by an out-of-state bank and becomes a wholly-owned subsidiary of the bank will be exempt from mortgage lender licensure and its mortgage loan originators would be exempt from state-side licensing but would need to be registered.
- 10/7/2014 Federally-insured, out-of-state bank is exempt from Connecticut mortgage licensure requirements, but the loan must comport with all applicable Connecticut laws. Mortgage loan originator would also be exempt from licensing so long as the individual is a W-2 employee of the bank, acts on the bank’s behalf and registered with and maintains a unique identifier on NMLS.

- 11/25/2013 #2 Summary of § 36a-487 exemptions and branch licensure and notification requirements. Discussion of mortgage loan originator licensure requirements in a federally supervised entity. Discussion of related qualified individual/branch manager mortgage loan originator licensure requirements.
- 9/5/2012 Loan modification personnel of a licensed mortgage lender do not need mortgage loan originator licenses where their activities are limited to renegotiation of mortgage loans on behalf of the lender since no new loans result and they otherwise do not engage in the business of a mortgage loan originator, nor would they need loan processor or underwriter licenses based on the facts presented; loan processor or underwriter licenses are not needed for affiliate employees who perform clerical duties for such loan modification personnel because the loan modification personnel are not required to be licensed or registered mortgage loan originators.
- 8/28/2012 Discussion of branch office and loan processor or underwriter licensing requirements for a licensed mortgage lender to provide other mortgage lenders loan processing or underwriting services at offices located within and outside the U.S.
- 3/26/2012 Disclosures required for a mortgage loan originator who holds a real estate broker license and who may be compensated for referrals.
- 3/16/2012 Corporation's residential mortgage program exclusively for the benefit of its employees qualifies the corporation to be exempt from mortgage lender licensure under § 36a-487(b)(6) and no mortgage loan originator licenses are required despite the "taking of an application" where there is no expectation of compensation or gain.
- 3/8/2012 #1 Individuals who are employees of a temporary staffing agency who perform clerical and support duties on a temporary basis for a mortgage lender or mortgage broker licensee require loan processor/underwriter licensure.
- 10/5/2011 Requirements of certain individuals working on behalf of a licensed debt negotiator to obtain a mortgage loan originator license.
- 5/27/2011 Subsidiary of an Illinois-chartered bank, of which the bank owns 51%, is not exempt from mortgage lender or broker licensure under § 36a-487. Mortgage loan originators who are either licensed or registered need unique identifiers on NMLS.
- 5/19/2011 Licensed mortgage loan originator working for both a professional employer organization and a mortgage licensee complies with § 36a-486(b)(1). The professional employer organization does not have to be licensed as a mortgage lender or broker in order to employ the licensed mortgage loan originator.
- 11/5/2010 To the extent employees of a company that assists lenders with obtaining information from borrowers in connection with loan modifications are taking applications and offering terms of residential mortgage loans, such employees would need to be licensed as mortgage loan originators and the company would need to obtain a mortgage broker license.

- 11/10/2009 Wholly-owned subsidiary of an FDIC-insured Utah chartered bank is not exempt from state licensure under § 36a-487. Registered mortgage loan originators who are employees will be exempt from state licensure under § 36a-486(b)(2) and attendant education and testing requirements in Connecticut.
- 12/19/2008 Company that makes and brokers loans on mobile homes located on leased land in Connecticut secured only by a UCC 1 filing on the mobile home and not by a mortgage on the leasehold interest is not required to be licensed as a mortgage lender or broker and its loan originators are not required to be licensed. Upon state implementation of the SAFE Act, licensure would be required.
- 3/7/2008 Legality of a real estate agent acting as a loan originator under certain scenarios.
- 6/3/2005 #1 Any location at which an originator regularly represents the licensee's interest by taking loan applications must be licensed. Determination has to be made on a case-by-case basis.
- 1/4/1996 Individual with a criminal conviction does not satisfy the statutory criteria for employment as a loan originator with a first mortgage licensee.

MORTGAGE SERVICING

- 5/30/2019 Certain customer service and administrative services proposed to be done by an offshore division of a licensed mortgage broker may require a mortgage servicer license.
- 1/31/2018 The Department will take a "no action" position regarding the mortgage servicer licensing requirement in § 36a-718 for licensed consumer collection agencies whose servicing of residential mortgage loans is limited to receiving payments from Connecticut consumer debtors on delinquent or defaulted residential mortgage loan debt for a third party or such person's own account if the indebtedness was acquired from another person and the indebtedness was either delinquent or in default at the time it was acquired; however, consumer collection agencies remain subject to all other requirements and standards imposed on mortgage servicers pursuant to §§ 36a-715 to 36a-719, as applicable.
- 10/1/2014 Both owners of mortgage servicing rights and owners of mortgage loans for which mortgage servicing rights have been retained, who hire licensed mortgage servicers, are acting indirectly as mortgage servicers and require licensure pursuant to § 36a-718(a).
- 12/16/2013 Mortgage servicing company that takes at least one payment for taxes and insurance premiums and holds it for at least one month must pay the minimum interest on funds held in escrow in accordance with § 49-2b-2 of the Regs.
- 10/20/1989 Confirmation of 9/26/1989 opinion.

- 9/26/1989 Mortgage servicing company is required to pay interest on escrow accounts for loans it originated and sold but continues to service.
- 10/17/1988 #2 § 49-2c(a)(4) does not exempt assignees of mortgage service companies from payment of interest on mortgage escrow accounts of mortgages sold within any year but secured beyond the 1-year period.
- 7/12/1988 #2 P.A. 88-271 makes clear that a mortgage servicing company is required to pay interest on escrow accounts it maintains in connection with mortgage loans entered into in Connecticut.
- 5/8/1987 #2 Mortgage servicing company is exempt from paying interest on an escrow account of those mortgages which the company sells to an unaffiliated purchaser within one year but continues to service beyond one year.
- 1/9/1986 #1 § 49-2c(a)(4) does not exempt assignees of mortgage service companies from payment of interest on mortgage escrow accounts of mortgages sold within one year but services beyond a one-year period.
- 7/9/1984 #1 § 49-2c exempts mortgage servicing companies from payment of interest on mortgage escrow accounts of mortgages sold within one year but serviced beyond one-year period.
- 7/2/1984 #2 § 49-2c does not require payment on mortgage escrow accounts by a mortgage servicing company that sells the loans within one year but continues to service them.
- 4/13/1984 Mortgage servicing company which holds funds in escrow must pay interest on those funds unless § 49-2c exceptions are applicable.
- 9/22/1982 #1 § 49-2c exempts mortgage servicing companies from payment of interest on mortgage escrow accounts of mortgages sold within one year but serviced beyond one-year period.

- 3/24/1998 Licensing and other requirements applicable to the extension of credit through an open-end credit card product.
- 4/3/1995 #1 Company that enters into installment loan contracts would be subject to applicable provisions of Ch. 669, Part XI.
- 7/26/1994 Under RISFA, a creditor may include a provision in the contract permitting the Continued accrual of interest in the event of a default at a rate not more than the contract rate on the outstanding balance to the date of judgment.
- 4/6/1994 Commissioner declined to file an amicus curiae brief in the appeal of a case in which the plaintiff was awarded damages under Ch. 733 and sought additional damages and attorney's fees under UCC and CUTPA.
- 7/15/1992 #1 Retail installment contract provision which permits repossession upon default triggered by lender's subjective suspicions does not violate §§ 42-98(a) or 42a-1-208 or public policy.
- 1/18/1985 #2 Balloon payments on motor vehicle retail installment contracts.
- 7/17/1984 Requirements under § 42-85 for retail seller of motor vehicles re finance charges with respect to retail installment contract containing a balloon payment.

RETENTION OF RECORDS

- 2/4/2005 Under § 36a-40-3(d)(1)(C) of the Regs, Connecticut banks are only required to retain the notes, loan agreements and other loan documents for all loans until the loans are paid.
- 5/5/2003 Connecticut banks and mortgage companies may comply with record retention requirements by maintaining electronic records; there are no provisions in Title 36a or the regulations thereunder that would prohibit using electronic records for audits or the transfer of loans.

RETENTION OF RECORDS (Continued)

- 5/22/1998 To the extent that § 36a-40-3 of the Regs addresses retention of records relative to community reinvestment, consumer protection, fair lending and branching, it is applicable to the Connecticut branches of a federally chartered out-of-state bank.
- 6/10/1996 Record retention requirements applicable to a bank in various types of merger situations.
- 1/16/1996 Department's statutes and regulations pertaining to retention of records do not address safety requirements in the long-term storage of bank records by a nonaffiliated safe storage facility or the operators of such facilities.
- 3/17/1993 Videocassettes used in video surveillance security systems are the functional equivalent of security camera film and must be retained for 2 years pursuant to §§ 36-2a-4(h)(2)(J), 36-2a-5(h)(2)(J) and 36-2a-6(g)(2)(J) of the Regs.
- 9/26/1990 #2 Savings bank may, in accordance with § 36-2a-5 of the Regs, establish a retention period for stop payment orders and releases for officer's checks, certified checks and teller's checks.
- 6/28/1989 § 36-2a-5(g)(1)(F) of the Regs requires a savings bank to retain all credit records and files on a paid loan other than those records retained under § 36-2a-5(g)(1)(D)(1) of the Regs for 7 years after payment of the loan.
- 6/23/1989 Nonissued ATM cards do not need to be retained since they do not constitute a "record" pursuant to § 36-2a of the CGS and § 36-2a-5 of the Regs.
- 5/15/1987 Record retention period pertaining to paid city or town tax bills for state bank and trust companies.
- 4/11/1985 Pursuant to § 36-2a-4 of the Regs, denied loan applications and related information must be retained for 25 months; approved applications for 7 years after full payment of a loan.
- 8/17/1981 #2 Records may be retained on photocopies if photocopy is accurate.

SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES

- 8/14/1995 Ability of a co-lessee of a safe deposit box to gain access to the box and its contents upon the death of one or more of the other co-lessees will be determined by the terms of the contract between the bank and its customers, by any applicable probate statutes, and by common law of property and decedents' estates.
- 1/16/1985 Ordinary care required when bank removes and relocates boxes in conjunction with closing of banks.

- 11/6/1980 Private safe deposit company not regulated by the Department.

SALES FINANCE COMPANIES

- 9/28/2018 Due to inconsistencies with the mandates of federal Regulation B, 12 CFR 1002, et al., the Department takes a “no action” position as to the enforcement of § 97 of P.A. 18-173 taking effect October 1, 2018, requiring sales finance companies to acquire and maintain records concerning the ethnicity, race and sex of applicants for a retail installment contract covering the retail sale of motor vehicles pending guidance from the CFPB and additional time to undertake a review of the appropriate manner and form for which such records shall be acquired, maintained and reported to the Department.
- 8/22/2018 The Department takes a “no action” position concerning the requirement that any Connecticut activity by sales finance company licensees be conducted from a “state” for the period of October 1, 2018 to December 31, 2018 when such entities hold a valid license for such activity through December 31, 2018.
- 2/10/2014 Company that acquires retail installment contracts from an entity other than the retail seller or installment loan contracts by loan or advance on the security of such contracts would not come within the definition of “sales finance company” and no license would be required.
- 12/12/2005 Depository institution organized and regulated as an industrial bank under Utah law is an “out-of-state bank” as defined in § 36a-2(44) and is exempt from licensing as a sales finance company.
- 5/8/1998 Licensing and other requirements applicable to the financing of manufactured housing.
- 4/3/1995 #1 Company limited to direct lending which would not acquire any retail installment contracts or installment loan contracts would not fall within the definition of a “sales finance company” as defined in § 36a-535.
- 5/19/1988 #1 Corporation engaged in extending credit directly to customers is not purchasing or acquiring retail installment contracts and therefore need not be licensed as a sales finance company.

SALES FINANCE COMPANIES (Continued)

1/18/1985 #1 Licensing and qualification requirements for purchase of retail installment contracts.

SAVINGS BANK LIFE INSURANCE

9/13/1982 Issuance of policy to a trust.

SECTION 36a-425 (Formerly Section 36-5a.)

9/28/2005 Offices of a nonbanking affiliate of a national bank may discuss bank products and answer related questions without such offices being deemed offices or branches of such bank.

5/6/2002 Offices of a nonbanking affiliate of out-of-state banks and a Connecticut bank may solicit for fiduciary services, loans, deposits and custody services on behalf of the banks without such offices being deemed offices or branches of such banks.

12/20/2000 No action position re establishment under § 36a-425(d) of an office of a national cooperative bank to engage in commercial origination, processing and packaging activities related solely to loans made and serviced in the District of Columbia and guaranteed by the SBA.

4/28/1998 No action position re establishment, under § 36a-425(d), of an office to engage in second mortgage activities by a nondepository institution which is an affiliate of an FDIC insured depository institution where the parent holding company is not a bank holding company.

7/17/1996 #1 Establishment of an international banking facility at the federal branch of a foreign bank that has elected Connecticut as its home state, and such facility will be part of the federal branch itself and will not be a separate corporate subsidiary of the bank, would fall within the exception provided under § 36a-425(c)(6).

8/24/1995 #1 Department will take a “no-action” position with respect to § 36a-425(d) in connection with a federally-chartered savings bank’s proposed establishment of an operating subsidiary, which will engage only in commercial loan production activities, based on the OTS’ position that state laws are preempted with respect to regulating operating subsidiaries of federal savings associations.

11/3/1994 #2 Where a direct subsidiary of a Connecticut or a federally-chartered bank having its principal office in Connecticut is also an indirect subsidiary of a holding company that owns or controls the parent bank, the exemption contained in § 36-5a(c)(3) applies to the bank subsidiary if the requirements of subsection (c)(3) are otherwise met.

- 8/30/1990 Subsidiary of a bank holding company that seeks to establish an office to engage in providing advice re arranging for the private placement of debt and equity securities and providing advice re mergers and acquisitions must file an application under § 36-5a(d). Commissioner does not have authority to waive filing fee for (d) offices.
- 1/26/1990 Change in the type of customers to be solicited by an approved § 36-5a(d) office does not constitute a change in activities and no further approval is required.
- 1/5/1990 § 36-5a(d) approval is required for a bank holding company subsidiary to offer banking services through an enhanced telephone device.
- 9/7/1989 #1 § 36-5a does not prohibit a leasing company that is neither a banking corporation nor a subsidiary or affiliate of a banking corporation or a bank holding company from making a commercial loan secured by a mortgage on Connecticut real estate.
- 6/30/1988 #2 Loan that encompasses any additional forms of collateral is not excluded from the protection of § 36-5a(g) as long as it is secured by mortgage on real estate and such mortgaged real estate is located in this state.
- 12/23/1987 Approval under § 36-5a(d) is valid indefinitely.
- 11/25/1987 #1 Corporation is not a bank holding company for the purposes of § 36-5a(b) by virtue of its ownership of an entity, although chartered under the banking laws of another state, which neither takes deposits nor makes any loans.
- 9/3/1987 No provisions of the banking laws exempt foreign banking corporations from the requirements of §§ 33-395 through 36-412.
- 7/21/1987 #1 Leasing the space in an office approved pursuant to § 36-5a(d) to an unaffiliated entity does not require an application or further approvals from this office.
- 10/6/1986 Provision of customer services in connection with a package of financial services and products which are authorized under § 36-5a does not require the filing of an application under § 36-5a.
- 9/12/1986 #2 Banks are defined in § 36-5a(b) not by their function but by their charter.
- 4/9/1986 § 36-5a(d) explained.
- 9/3/1985 Nonbanking subsidiary of an out-of-state banking corporation is required to obtain approval of the Commissioner prior to opening an office in this state.
- 6/26/1984 Membership of a commercial bank in a nationwide network franchise program must comply with §§ 36-5a and 36-193f.
- 7/21/1983 #2 P.A. 83-411, An Act Concerning Interstate Banking.

- 5/4/1983 Corporation engaged only in making residential mortgage loans and is not depository institution is not a “banking corporation” within meaning of § 36-5a(a).
- 7/26/1982 Nonbank subsidiary of out-of-state savings bank may do business and open offices in Connecticut.
- 6/14/1982 Subsidiary of an out-of-state savings bank may make residential mortgage loans in Connecticut and may establish offices in Connecticut for this purpose.
- 11/25/1980 Penalties for violating § 36-5a discussed.
- 11/23/1979 Out-of-state bank may purchase a loan made by a Connecticut bank; Department lacks jurisdiction to determine if out-of-state bank may use Connecticut courts to sue on loan.

SECTION 36a-425—Agency Offices

- 1/30/1995 #1 Department will take a “no action” position against a federal savings bank which operates agency offices pursuant to 12 CFR 545.96 that originate residential mortgage loans.
- 9/16/1992 Based on OTS opinion and approval, the Department takes no-action position with respect to a foreign federal savings association establishing “agency offices” in Connecticut.
- 9/6/1991 #1 Based on OTS opinion, the Department takes no-action position with respect to a foreign federal savings association establishing “agency office” in Connecticut. Federal S&Ls are exempt from the license requirements of §§ 36-224c and 36-440b.

SECTION 36a-425—“Banking Business”

- 8/8/2000 Collection agency services are closely related to banking and necessitate § 36a-425(d) approval.
- 1/6/1992 #2 Previously approved § 36-5a(d) office may expand its activities to include negotiation and execution of fiduciary agreement not in conflict with 36-314. Employees of bank holding company or banking affiliates may not use office to engage in banking business.
- 11/20/1991 Investment adviser activities are closely related to banking and necessitate § 36-5a(d) approval.
- 3/24/1987 #1 Bank that seeks to establish an office to engage in leasing activities pursuant to § 225.25(b)(5) of the FRB’s Reg. Y will be engaging in banking business as defined in § 36-5a(b) and must comply with the provisions of § 36-5a(d).

SECTION 36a-425—“Banking Business” (Continued)

- 6/27/1984 Approval may be granted under § 36-5a(b) only if the Commissioner determines office will not be used for “banking business.”
- 4/27/1983 #3 Out-of-state bank holding company may not establish wholly-owned Connecticut corporate subsidiary to conduct banking business under § 36-5a(b).
- 6/26/1980 #1 Not “banking business” for nonbank subsidiary of holding company to own bank building and receive rents from bank and other tenants.

SECTION 36a-425—Corporate Restructuring

- 3/14/1991 If an internal reorganization results in a new top-tier holding company, a new § 36-5a(d) application must be filed. However, if there are no new offices or activities, there is no fee or counting.
- 3/16/1990 Subsidiary office approved pursuant to § 36-5a(d) does not need additional approval when it is involved in an intercorporate restructuring and the office will not be conducting additional activities.
- 6/19/1989 No additional approvals are required for § 36-5a(d) offices where a holding company merges with another holding company; when one corporate entity is substituted for another as part of a corporate restructuring; corporate restructuring at an office grandfathered under § 36-5a(c)(4); and for a relocation, as long as no new activities are conducted and the old office is closed.
- 9/1/1987 Substitution of one subsidiary for another at an approved § 36-5a(d) office does not require a new application as long as the office conducts no new activities.
- 1/16/1986 Substitution of one corporate entity for another at an approved location does not constitute the establishment of a new 36-5a(d) office.
- 1/7/1985 Office is grandfathered under § 36-5a(c)(4) if it engages in no new activities despite corporate restructuring.

SECTION 36a-425—Deposit Services

- 2/25/2015 Department will not take any enforcement action against an out-of-state bank by reason of its accepting deposits from Connecticut residents through the bank’s mobile banking platform.
- 5/6/1999 #2 Out-of-state bank may accept deposits from a Connecticut resident at an out-of-state branch location and require a borrower to maintain a deposit account with the bank as part of its loan commitment without violating Connecticut law, but the bank cannot receive or accept deposits in Connecticut without establishing an approved branch in Connecticut.

- 1/3/1992 Office established under § 36-5a(d) is prohibited by § 36-59(6) from soliciting deposits.
- 10/9/1991 #1 Foreign banking corporation may establish an office through a nonbanking subsidiary pursuant to § 36-5a(d) to solicit loans but would be prohibited from soliciting deposits by § 36-59(6).
- 5/18/1979 Out-of-state bank may solicit deposits in Connecticut as long as deposit is accepted at out-of-state location.

SECTION 36a-425—Expansions

- 2/23/1993 #2 Expansion of entities on whose behalf fiduciary services are solicited, with no change in type of activity or customers solicited, is not an expansion within the meaning of § 36-5a(d) requiring additional approval.
- 1/6/1992 #2 Previously approved § 36-5a(d) office may expand its activities to include negotiation and execution of fiduciary agreement not in conflict with 36-314. Employees of bank holding company or banking affiliates may not use office to engage in banking business.
- 4/30/1990 Solicitation of services does not constitute expansion of marketing activities approved under § 36-5a.
- 3/27/1990 Addition of small loan business at an office approved for consumer loans does not require additional § 36-5a approval.
- 1/26/1990 Change in the type of customers to be solicited by an approved § 36-5a(d) office does not constitute a change in activities and no further approval is required.
- 10/12/1989 Approval is not required for a § 36-5a(d) office approved to make consumer mortgages to add commercial mortgages.
- 4/5/1989 #2 § 36-5a(d) office that offers mortgage loans is not expanding its activities if it offers additional types of mortgage loans. Foreign banking corporation may make mortgage loans in Connecticut in its own name but may not do so by utilizing the Connecticut office of its subsidiary.
- 9/23/1988 Office that expands beyond the activities for which it received approval must seek approval to engage in additional activities pursuant to § 36-5a(d) but is neither required to pay a filing fee nor does the 2-office limit apply.
- 4/11/1988 Solicitation of credit cards is merely the solicitation of open-end credit, another form of consumer credit.

SECTION 36a-425—Expansions (Continued)

- 2/3/1988 #2 Assignment of loan commitment to parent bank does not constitute an expansion of the activities of the subsidiary offices approved or grandfathered under § 36-5a.
- 12/9/1987 Addition of secondary mortgage banking to first mortgage banking does not constitute an expansion of the activities of an office approved under § 36-5a(d).
- 5/16/1986 New § 36-5a(d) filing is not necessary when a holding company adds a subsidiary to an office approved pursuant to § 36-5a(d) that will only conduct activities already approved for that location.
- 7/25/1985 Servicing of receivables by sales finance office does not constitute an expansion of activities and therefore does not require additional approval under § 36-5a.
- 11/8/1983 #2 Subsidiary of an out-of-state bank holding company that purchases open-end and closed-end retail installment contracts is not engaged in a new activity under § 36-5a(c)(4).
- 11/3/1983 Expansion of activities beyond those actually engaged in on 3/1/1983 constitutes the establishment of an office requiring the Commissioner's approval.

SECTION 36a-425—Fiduciary Services

- 2/23/1993 #3 Out-of-state bank may act as a corporate indenture trustee in Connecticut for debt financing instruments pursuant to § 45a-206 and establish a nonbank subsidiary office pursuant to § 36-5a(d), but bank employees may not conduct banking business from the nonbank subsidiary office.
- 3/26/1992 Neither Ch. 652 nor § 36-5a would apply to corporation that is not affiliated with a bank or bank holding company and which does not intend to have or exercise fiduciary powers in this state.
- 1/6/1992 #2 Previously approved § 36-5a(d) office may expand its activities to include negotiation and execution of fiduciary agreement not in conflict with § 36-314. Employees of bank holding company or banking affiliates may not use office to engage in banking business.
- 7/15/1985 Out-of-state institution that qualifies to act as a trustee in Connecticut under § 45-191 would not be in violation of § 36-5a.
- 9/4/1984 Conditions under which an out-of-state bank may act as a trustee in Connecticut.
- 5/21/1984 Conditions under which an out-of-state bank may act as trustee in Connecticut.
- 11/12/1982 #1 If out-of-state banking corporation does qualify under § 45-191, § 36-5a permits that banking corporation to act as executor or trustee in Connecticut.

SECTION 36a-425—Fiduciary Services (Continued)

- 10/26/1981 Certificate of reciprocity allowing Rhode Island bank to qualify as executor or trustee in Connecticut under § 36-5a.
- 8/3/1978 Discussion of whether an out-of-state bank may serve as an indenture trustee under an indenture involving Connecticut real estate.

SECTION 36a-425—Grandfathered Offices

- 6/27/1990 Pursuant to § 36-5a(c)(4), the provisions of § 36-5a(b) does not apply to a banking corporation which required and which had received all requisite state and federal authorizations and was open for business prior to 6/1/1984.
- 6/19/1989 No additional approvals are required for § 36-5a(d) offices where a holding company merges with another holding company; when one corporate entity is substituted for another as part of a corporate restructuring; corporate restructuring at an office grandfathered under § 36-5a(c)(4); and for a relocation, as long as no new activities are conducted and the old office is closed.
- 7/29/1988 #2 When a holding company acquires another, thereby acquiring grandfathered offices in Connecticut, the grandfather provision does not extend to the new holding company. Accordingly, the new holding company would be required to file applications pursuant to § 36-5a(d) but would not be required to pay the filing fee nor would the 2-office limit be imposed since the purpose of the transaction was not to establish offices.
- 2/17/1988 No approval is necessary for the relocation of a grandfathered office.
- 5/5/1987 Subsidiary of a bank holding company which engages in leasing activities prior to the grandfather date set forth in § 36-5a(c)(4) then seeks to engage in a new activity subsequent to grandfather date must apply for a new office pursuant to § 36-5a(d).
- 1/7/1985 Office is grandfathered under § 36-5a(c)(4) if it engages in no new activities despite corporate restructuring.
- 11/29/1984 #6 Office that was authorized to make consumer loans and was grandfathered pursuant to § 36-5a(c)(4) does not lose its authorization under the grandfather provision by offering an additional type of consumer loan.
- 10/10/1984 #2 Opening of a new subsidiary in an existing office does not fall within the grandfather provision of § 36-5a(c)(4).
- 6/6/1980 Intercorporate restructuring of grandfathered activities by nonbank subsidiaries of a holding company are permitted under the holding company moratorium.

SECTION 36a-425—Investment Services

- 11/20/1991 Investment adviser activities are closely related to banking and necessitate § 36-5a(d) approval.
- 8/30/1990 Subsidiary of a bank holding company that seeks to establish an office to engage in providing advice re arranging for the private placement of debt and equity securities and advice re mergers and acquisitions must file an application under § 36-5a(d). Commissioner does not have the authority to waive filing fee for (d) offices.
- 5/2/1989 #1 Permissibility of bank holding company subsidiary leasing space from Connecticut chartered banks to provide full service brokerage to the community.
- 8/18/1988 S&L holding company subsidiary entering into securities services agreement with service corporation is subject to § 36-5a(d).

SECTION 36a-425—Loan Services

- 11/10/2005 #2 Pursuant to § 36a-425(a), a foreign banking corporation would not be deemed to be transacting business in Connecticut when it enters into Murabaha transactions, which are loans within the meaning of § 36a-2(39), or Ijara transactions, which are functionally equivalent to secured real estate lending.
- 3/6/1998 (Overruled by Wachovia Bank v. Burke, 414 F.3d 305 (2d Cir. 2005)) (Department policy modified in light of opinion of Attorney General.) Operating subsidiary of a federal savings bank that engages in the first and secondary mortgage business as lender and broker must comply with §§ 36a-486, 36a-511 and 36a-425, notwithstanding the OTS's claim of preemption.
- 11/3/1994 #1 Pursuant to § 36-5a(c)(3), Commissioner's approval under § 36-5a is not required to establish offices of a nondepository first mortgage lender that is both a direct subsidiary of a Connecticut bank or a federally-chartered bank having its principal office in Connecticut, and an indirect subsidiary of the bank's parent holding company.
- 12/11/1992 Department will not opine whether an out-of-state banking institution's non-purpose loan program constitutes the transaction of business for purposes of § 36-5a(a).
- 10/21/1991 #1 § 36-5a(d) approval is necessary for a foreign banking corporation and its nonbanking subsidiary to take loan applications, conduct property appraisals and assemble credit documentation. No § 36-5a approval is necessary to have loans closed by Connecticut attorneys as long as no location is held out or advertised to the public as an office.
- 10/9/1991 #1 Foreign banking corporation may establish an office through a nonbanking subsidiary pursuant to § 36-5a(d) to solicit loans but would be prohibited from soliciting deposits by § 36-59(6).

SECTION 36a-425—Loan Services (Continued)

- 9/6/1991 #2 Foreign corporation that makes mortgage loans but does not take deposits is not a “foreign banking corporation” for purposes of § 36-5a(g).
- 3/27/1990 Addition of small loan business at an office approved for consumer loans does not require additional § 36-5a approval.
- 2/23/1990 #1 Bank that makes mortgage loans in Connecticut but does not have any offices in Connecticut would not be deemed to be transacting business by virtue of § 36-5a(g). A bank that contracts with instate entities to purchase loans made by such entities may not be transacting business pursuant to § 36-5a(a).
- 10/12/1989 Approval is not required for a § 36-5a(d) office approved to make consumer mortgages to add commercial mortgages.
- 9/7/1989 #1 § 36-5a does not prohibit a leasing company that is neither a banking corporation nor a subsidiary or affiliate of a banking corporation or a bank holding company from making a commercial loan secured by a mortgage on Connecticut real estate.
- 4/5/1989 #2 § 36-5a(d) office that offers mortgage loans is not expanding its activities if it offers additional types of mortgage loans. Foreign banking corporation may make mortgage loans in Connecticut in its own name but may not do so by utilizing the Connecticut office of its subsidiary.
- 12/2/1988 #1 No § 36-5a approval is necessary for a foreign banking corporation and its subsidiary to originate mortgage loans via telephone from employees’ homes and have those loans closed by Connecticut attorneys as long as no location is held out or advertised to the public as an office.
- 10/19/1988 Foreign bank that purchases loans from a mortgage company located outside Connecticut may not avail itself of the loan participation/purchase exception but, nonetheless, may not be transacting business in this state.
- 6/30/1988 #2 Loan that encompasses additional forms of collateral is not excluded from the protection of § 36-5a(g) as long as it is secured by mortgage on real estate and such mortgaged real estate is located in this state.
- 4/11/1988 Solicitation of credit cards is merely the solicitation of open-end credit, another form of consumer credit.
- 2/26/1988 #1 Providing operational support under § 36-5a(d) to out-of-state financial institutions that make mortgage loans secured by Connecticut real estate does not require an application or further approvals from this office.
- 2/3/1988 #2 Assignment of loan commitment to parent bank does not constitute an expansion of the activities of the subsidiary offices approved or grandfathered under § 36-5a.
- 12/9/1987 Addition of secondary mortgage banking to first mortgage banking does not constitute an expansion of the activities of an office approved under § 36-5a(d).

- 7/7/1987 Foreign bank that makes share loans to cooperative owners is not transacting business in this state because such loans will be considered mortgage loans secured by real estate within the meaning of § 36-5a(g).
- 5/20/1987 #2 In light of the practical difficulty in regulating the proceeds of loans made pursuant to § 36-5a(g), Department will no longer look to the proceeds of such loans in determining their legality.
- 7/3/1986 #1 (Superseded by 5/20/1987 #2) Use of the loan proceeds would determine when a refinanced loan is a residential mortgage loan for purposes of § 36-5a(g).
- 6/16/1986 Loan production offices of out-of-state banking corporations or holding companies must comply with the provisions of § 36-5a. § 36-5a would not apply to independent loan solicitation companies.
- 4/24/1986 #1 Nonbank subsidiary of an out-of-state bank holding company may make residential mortgage and construction loans in Connecticut pursuant to § 36-5a(g).
- 2/13/1986 § 36-5a(g) authorizes out-of-state financial institutions to refinance a multi-family dwelling.
- 8/15/1985 § 36-5a(c) permits an office of a subsidiary of a federal S&L to engage in secondary mortgage lending in Connecticut.
- 8/12/1985 #2 Out-of-state S&L may be an assignee of mortgage loans made by a Connecticut corporation pursuant to § 36-5a(a).
- 7/25/1985 Servicing of receivables by sales finance office does not constitute an expansion of activities and does not require additional approval under § 36-5a.
- 4/26/1985 #3 Authority under § 36-5a(g) to make a mortgage loan on residential real estate includes refinancing.
- 3/5/1985 #1 State bank and trust company may serve as a mortgage broker for an out-of-state bank without violating § 36-5a.
- 11/29/1984 #6 Office that was authorized to make consumer loans and was grandfathered pursuant to § 36-5a(c)(4) does not lose its authorization under the grandfather provision by offering an additional type of consumer loan.
- 11/14/1984 #2 § 36-5a(g) authorizes an out-of-state financial institution to make a mortgage loan on property that is under construction as a residential condominium.
- 5/30/1984 #1 Nonbank subsidiary of an out-of-state bank holding company that makes conventional commercial real estate loans in Connecticut secured by mortgages on commercial real estate located in Connecticut is not transacting business in violation of § 36-5a(a).

- 5/14/1984 Out-of-state banks may take mortgages on principal of foreign residential property in Connecticut to secure commercial loans to an out-of-state corporation.
- 2/24/1984 Commercial loan made by an out-of-state bank to an out-of-state corporation secured by an indenture on the principal's residential property in Connecticut is not prohibited by Connecticut law.
- 1/17/1984 #2 Nonbank subsidiary of an out-of-state federal S&L may open an office in Connecticut to make secured and unsecured commercial loans.
- 11/28/1983 #2 Nonbank subsidiary of an out-of-state S&L may establish offices in Connecticut to make residential mortgage loans.
- 11/28/1983 #1 Nonbank subsidiary of an out-of-state S&L may establish an office in Connecticut to engage in commercial real estate lending.
- 11/8/1983 #2 Subsidiary of an out-of-state bank holding company that purchases open-end as well as closed-end retail installment contracts is not engaged in a new activity under § 36-5a(c)(4).
- 5/4/1983 Corporation engaged only in making residential mortgage loans and is not depository institution is not a "banking corporation" within meaning of § 36-5a(a).
- 3/25/1983 #1 "Residential mortgage loan" as used in § 36-5a(e) does not include second mortgage home improvement loans or other equity loans secured by second mortgages on Connecticut residential properties.
- 10/13/1982 #1 Nonbank subsidiary of foreign bank may make mortgage loans in Connecticut under § 36-5a, P.A. 81-124, 82-95.
- 9/7/1982 #2 Loan solicitation business by out-of-state corporation not affiliated with bank or bank holding company is not in violation of § 36-5c.
- 6/14/1982 Subsidiary of an out-of-state savings bank may make residential mortgage loans in Connecticut and may establish offices in Connecticut for this purpose.
- 11/27/1981 #2 Out-of-state bank may make mortgage loans in Connecticut to construct condos or apartments under P.A. 124.
- 7/2/1980 Out-of-state bank may be participant in or assignee of mortgage loans made in Connecticut.
- 11/23/1979 Out-of-state bank may purchase a loan made by a Connecticut bank; Department lacks jurisdiction to determine if out-of-state bank may use Connecticut courts to sue on loan.
- 1/19/1978 Out-of-state person may take mortgage on Connecticut real estate to secure pre-existing debt.

SECTION 36a-425—Mergers/Acquisitions

- 3/19/1990 #3 Banking corporation that acquires a banking corporation which received § 36-5a(d) approval to establish an office of a subsidiary in Connecticut is required to file an application pursuant to § 36-5a(d) to maintain the subsidiary office in Connecticut; however, if the acquisition is not for the purpose of establishing an office, no application fee is required.
- 6/19/1989 No additional approvals are required for § 36-5a(d) offices where a holding company merges with another holding company; when one corporate entity is substituted for another as part of a corporate restructuring; corporate restructuring at an office grandfathered under § 36-5a(c)(4); and for a relocation, as long as no new activities are conducted and the old office is closed.
- 7/29/1988 #2 When a holding company acquires another, thereby acquiring grandfathered offices in Connecticut, the grandfather provision does not extend to the new holding company. Accordingly, the new holding company would be required to file applications pursuant to § 36-5a(d) but would not be required to pay the filing fee nor would the 2-office limit be imposed since the purpose of the transaction was not to establish offices.
- 1/5/1988 Position of the Department that the acquisition of a mortgage lending company by a bank holding company necessitates the filing of one application under § 36-5a(d) and the payment of the filing fee, and such application will count as one “office” for the purposes of § 36-5a(d) regardless of the number of offices the mortgage lender has in Connecticut.
- 11/3/1987 No further approval under § 36-5a(d) is required where the surviving corporation of a merger is substituted for the merged corporation at an approved § 36-5a(d) office.
- 3/9/1987 Acquisition by a Connecticut bank holding company of a small business investment company through the formation of a wholly-owned subsidiary that will merge with and into the investment company requires the filing of § 36-5a(b) and (d) application.
- 5/9/1986 In-state bank subsidiaries of an out-of-state holding company acquired pursuant to Ch. 662c, interstate banking statutes, would be exempt from the prohibition of § 36-5a(b) by § 36-5a(c)(1). Subsidiaries of the bank would be exempt from the prohibition pursuant to § 36-5a(c)(3).

SECTION 36a-425—“Office”

- 5/18/2016 New York chartered bank will not be deemed to be “transacting business” under § 36a-425 by establishing a “hoteling office” for employees to use in lieu of working from home.
- 7/2/2015 Neither the change of name of an out-of-state bank nor lack of mortgage loan origination personnel has a material impact on the analysis issued by the Department on 6/12/2008 that the activities of the bank would not be prohibited by § 36a-425(a) or run afoul of § 36a-425(b).

- 1/15/2015 #2 If an out-of-state bank does not advertise or hold out certain locations as offices, it will not be establishing an “office” within the meaning of § 36a-425 and does not need to seek approval under § 36a-412.
- 7/14/2014 Out-of-state bank that (1) acquired another out-of-state bank with a Connecticut location for which the Department previously provided an opinion in which it determined the out-of-state bank was not establishing an “office” within the meaning of § 36a-425 and did not need to seek approval under § 36a-412 for a branch and (2) has not changed the nature of the activities at the Connecticut location of the out-of-bank, is not establishing an “office” within the meaning of § 36a-425 and does not need to seek approval under § 36a-412 for a branch.
- 2/25/2011 An out-of-state bank who has employees who work from their Connecticut homes would not be establishing an office in this state to conduct banking business within the meaning of § 36a-425 as long as the bank does not advertise or hold out the employees’ homes as offices the bank.
- 6/12/2008 Authority of a foreign banking corporation to make loans implicitly includes the authority to broker loans. Location where a bank’s loan originators work but that is not held out to the public as an office, through signage, cards, advertisements or telephone listings, is not an office.
- 3/27/2002 If an out-of-state bank does not advertise or hold out closing and funding locations as offices, it will not be establishing an “office” within the meaning of § 36a-425 and does not need to seek approval under § 36a-412 for a branch.
- 5/6/1999 #2 If an out-of-state bank does not advertise or hold out closing and funding locations as offices, it will not be establishing an “office” within the meaning of § 36a-425 and does not need to seek approval under § 36a-412 for a branch.
- 3/6/1991 No authority under Connecticut law for a foreign banking corporation to change the status of the office of its nonbank subsidiary in Connecticut to an office of the bank.
- 2/23/1990 #3 Client meeting place by appointment only at which transactions will not be completed would not constitute an “office”; no § 36-5a approval would be required.
- 6/7/1989 § 36-5a approval is required for a bank holding company subsidiary establishing designated manned locations in leased space within Connecticut. Unstaffed “nonhub” offices are not considered offices subject to § 36-5a approval.
- 12/2/1988 #1 No § 36-5a approval is necessary for a foreign banking corporation and its subsidiary to originate mortgage loans via telephone from employees’ homes and have those loans closed by Connecticut attorneys as long as no location is held out or advertised to the public as an office.
- 5/18/1988 Call forwarding service does not amount to establishment of an office in Connecticut for the purposes of § 36-5a(d).

- 2/26/1988 #2 Subsidiary of a Massachusetts savings bank that maintains no physical location in Connecticut, but employs Connecticut residents who may make or receive telephone calls from clients at their home is not establishing offices under § 36-5a(b).
- 1/5/1988 It is the position of the Department that the acquisition of a mortgage lending company by a bank holding company necessitates the filing of one application under § 36-5a(d) and the payment of the filing fee and such application will count as one “office” for the purposes of § 36-5a(d) regardless of the number of offices the mortgage lender has in Connecticut.
- 9/24/1987 #2 Payroll payments by a bank holding company to a bank’s residential mortgage department employees does not constitute the establishment of an office under § 36-5a(d). If those offices assume the identity of the bank holding company, then such offices would be subject to the provisions of § 36-5a(d).
- 7/16/1987 Temporary presence of on-site representatives or permanent presence of kiosk to provide information re package of products and services at location of employer whose employees are offered the products and services does not constitute establishment of an office within the meaning of § 36-5a(d).
- 2/27/1987 #1 Out-of-state bank may not establish a branch in Connecticut, however it may open an office pursuant to § 36-5a(b) or 36-5a(d).
- 10/24/1986 National banking association that has its principal office and all branches outside of Connecticut, which is present in Connecticut for the sole purpose of engaging in lease transactions, would not be establishing an office in Connecticut.
- 4/28/1986 Definition of one office pursuant to § 36-5a(d).
- 1/16/1986 Substitution of one corporate entity for another at an approved location does not constitute the establishment of a new § 36-5a(d) office.
- 11/27/1984 #3 Relocation of an existing office does not constitute a new office within the provisions of § 36-5a(d).
- 11/3/1983 Expansion of activities beyond those actually engaged in on 3/1/1983 constitutes the establishment of an office requiring the Commissioner’s approval.
- 10/14/1983 What constitutes an “office” under § 9 of P.A. 83-411.

SECTION 36a-425—Relocations

- 6/19/1989 No additional approvals are required for § 36-5a(d) offices when a holding company merges with another holding company; when one corporate entity is substituted for another as part of a corporate restructuring; corporate restructuring at an office grandfathered under § 36-5a(c)(4); and for a relocation, as long as no new activities are conducted and the old office is closed.
- 5/2/1989 #2 No approval is necessary to relocate an approved § 36-5a(d) office; relocation does not constitute an office for the 2-per-year limitation.
- 6/21/1988 Relocation of an existing § 36-5a(d) office does not require the Department's approval.
- 2/17/1988 No approval is necessary for the relocation of a grandfathered office.
- 11/20/1987 Relocation of an existing approved § 36-5a(d) office does not require further approval.
- 11/27/1984 #3 Relocation of an existing office does not constitute a new office within the provisions of § 36-5a(d).
- 1/5/1984 Relocation of an ongoing office does not require approval pursuant to § 36-5a(d).

SECTION 36a-425—"Transacting Business"

- 5/18/2016 New York chartered bank will not be deemed to be "transacting business" under § 36a-425 by establishing a "hoteling office" for employees to use in lieu of working from home.
- 8/3/2015 If an out-of-state bank is authorized to act under § 42-202(b), then it would not be prohibited by § 36a-425(a) from transacting business in Connecticut.
- 5/27/2015 Foreign banking corporation would not be deemed to be transacting business in Connecticut by engaging in commercial lending.
- 1/15/2015 #2 Pursuant to § 36a-425, a foreign banking corporation would not be deemed to be transacting business in Connecticut by making loans.
- 10/7/2014 Federally-insured, out-of-state bank making a residential mortgage loan secured by property in Connecticut would not be deemed to be transacting business in Connecticut for purposes of § 36a-425.
- 9/10/2014 Out-of-state bank is not transacting business within the meaning of § 36a-425(a) by virtue of making a commercial loan secured by commercial property in Connecticut to an out-of-state corporation.

- 12/2/2011 #1 Out-of-state, FDIC-insured bank that originates and closes loans in Connecticut directly with no physical presence in Connecticut is exempt from licensing as a mortgage lender, mortgage correspondent lender or mortgage broker by § 36a-486. In addition, the bank would not run afoul of the general prohibition against a foreign banking corporation transacting business in this state under § 36a-425(a). If closing and funding locations are not held out as offices, the bank will not be establishing an office to conduct “banking business” within the meaning of § 36a-425 and would not require branch approval under § 36a-412.
- 12/10/2010 Utah bank that funds commercial loans and leases to companies in Connecticut would not be deemed to be transacting business in Connecticut for purposes of § 36a-425(a).
- 4/9/2010 #2 Equipment leasing by an out-of-state bank does not constitute transacting business in this state for purposes of § 36a-425(a).
- 12/23/2009 #2 The advertising and offering by a foreign banking corporation of various depository products and the solicitation of deposits via mail, email and telephone and web banking does not constitute transacting business under § 36a-425(a).
- 6/15/2007 Foreign banking corporation would not be deemed to be transacting business in Connecticut when it conducts loan production activity for insurance premium finance loans in Connecticut.
- 11/10/2005 #2 Pursuant to § 36a-425(a), a foreign banking corporation would not be deemed to be transacting business in Connecticut when it enters into Murabaha transactions, which are loans within the meaning of § 36a-2(39), or Ijara transactions, which are functionally equivalent to secured real estate lending.
- 10/22/2004 #1 Pursuant to § 36a-425(a), a foreign banking corporation would not be deemed to be transacting business in Connecticut when it finances insurance premiums for businesses in Connecticut from its offices in Illinois.
- 8/13/2003 Pursuant to § 36a-425(a), a foreign banking corporation would not be deemed to be transacting business in Connecticut when it conducts credit investigations for loans it intends to make or loans or retail installment contracts it intends to purchase, or purchases retail installment contracts made by car dealerships in Connecticut.
- 2/27/2003 Change in the administrative support of an employee in Connecticut of a trust company from Washington to New York will not alter the trust company’s status as set forth in 5/29/2002 letter.
- 5/29/2002 Bank limited to fiduciary powers does not establish an office under § 36a-425(b) or a de novo branch under § 36a-410 when its employee functions solely in a sales and marketing capacity from a leased space in Connecticut and the space is not held out as an office of the bank, nor do such activities constitute “transacting business” under § 36a-425(a).

- 3/27/2002 Pursuant to § 36a-425(a), a foreign banking corporation would not be deemed to be transacting business in Connecticut when it makes residential mortgage loans to borrowers in Connecticut from its offices in Maryland or by advertising its loan products in Connecticut.
- 3/5/2002 Foreign banking corporation that will have no offices in Connecticut and will not function as a depository in this state, which engages in the business of equipment leasing in Connecticut, is not transacting business for the purposes of § 36a-425(a).
- 2/13/2002 #2 Solicitation by an out-of-state bank of its affiliate’s employees in Connecticut by offering its loan and depository products (including web banking) via the mail, e-mail and telephone does not constitute transacting business in Connecticut in violation of § 36a-425.
- 8/10/1998 Foreign banking corporation with no offices in Connecticut which markets certain bonds to individuals in this country who are nationals of the bank’s home country is not transacting business for the purposes of § 36a-425(a).
- 7/2/1997 Advertising of certain depository products in Connecticut and opening of accounts by telephone or mail by an out-of-state bank is not prohibited by § 36a-425.
- 6/18/1997 #2 Foreign banking corporation, with no offices located in Connecticut, which markets NOW accounts and money market accounts to Connecticut residents from its out-of-state locations, is not transacting business for the purposes of § 36a-425(a).
- 5/22/1997 Foreign banking corporation, with no offices located in Connecticut, which markets CDs and passbook or statement savings accounts to Connecticut residents from its out-of-state locations, is not transacting business for purposes of § 36a-425(a).
- 6/19/1996 Department will not issue a letter of certification stating that an out-of-state national banking association is authorized to purchase municipal tax liens or otherwise conduct business in Connecticut since this activity may constitute transacting business in Connecticut pursuant to § 36a-425(a).
- 8/24/1995 #2 Based on § 36a-425(a), a foreign banking corporation would not be deemed to be transacting business in Connecticut when it solicits and makes commercial and residential first mortgage loans and provides secured lines of credit to borrowers in Connecticut from its offices in Massachusetts.
- 8/9/1994 Department will not opine whether an off-shore bank which plans to advertise and offer a wide-range of banking products, and has no office in Connecticut, is transacting business for purposes of § 36-5a(a).
- 2/23/1993 #1 Department will not opine whether an out-of-state bank which solicits credit advance business through the mail, and has no office in Connecticut, is transacting business for purposes of § 36-5a(a).
