WHEREAS, MORTGAGE ACCESS CORP. D/B/A WEICHERT FINANCIAL SERVICES (“MAC” or the “Corporation”), a corporation organized under the laws of, and headquartered in, Morris Plains, New Jersey with full knowledge of its rights to notice and hearing pursuant to the laws of the States of Connecticut, Louisiana, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina and Vermont and the Commonwealths of Kentucky, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and Virginia (collectively, the “States”) and having waived those rights, enters into this Consent Agreement and Order (“Order”), dated May 27, 2011, with representatives of the Connecticut Department of Banking; the Kentucky Department of Financial Institutions; the Louisiana Office of Financial Institutions; the Massachusetts Division of Banks; the New Jersey Department of Banking and Insurance; the State of New York Banking Department; the North Carolina Office of the Commissioner of Banks; the Pennsylvania Department of Banking; the Vermont Department of Banking, Insurance, Securities and Health Care Administration; and the Virginia Bureau of Financial Institutions (hereafter the “State Mortgage Regulators”) solely for the purpose of resolving this matter in its entirety and without admitting any allegations or implications of fact or any violation of laws, regulations and rules governing the conduct and operation of MAC’s mortgage business in each. MAC and the States are collectively referred to as the “Parties.”

WHEREAS, on September 13, 2010, the State Mortgage Regulators commenced a limited scope multi-state examination (the “Multi-State Examination”) of MAC in order to determine whether MAC was engaged in the practice of soliciting and originating residential mortgage loans utilizing individuals unlicensed in particular states from the period July 1, 2008 to September 9, 2010.

WHEREAS, each State Mortgage Regulator conducted the Multi-State Examination pursuant to its statutory authority as well as protocols established by the CSBS/AARMR Nationwide Cooperative Protocol for Mortgage Supervision as well as the Nationwide Cooperative Agreement for Mortgage Supervision.

WHEREAS, MAC is licensed under the laws of the States and has its corporate headquarters located at 225 Littleton Road, Morris Plains, New Jersey and maintains various licensed branch offices in the States.

WHEREAS, MAC cooperated with the State Mortgage Regulators during the course of the Multi-State Examination by: voluntarily providing documentation, including evidence of its efforts to comply with applicable laws, rules and regulations, access to its employees, systems and facilities and responding to inquiries, both verbally and in writing.

WHEREAS, the confidential findings of the Multi-State Examination and related State Specific Reports of Examination (collectively referred to as the "Examination"), which were prepared by the State Mortgage Regulators and issued to MAC on November 29, 2010, identified compliance violations in the States with applicable laws, regulations, and rules governing MAC's mortgage business.

WHEREAS, on December 30, 2010, MAC provided a response to the findings and violations contained in the Multi-State Report of Examination to the State Mortgage Regulators whereby MAC contested the findings and compliance violations contained therein.

WHEREAS, after negotiation and solely for the purpose of resolving all compliance violations found by the State Mortgage Regulators, and without MAC admitting wrongdoing, the Parties seek to resolve by mutual agreement and without protracted administrative proceedings and judicial review all compliance violations identified below pursuant to each State Mortgage Regulator's statutory authority. MAC hereby waives its right to the hearing processes relative to such proceedings in each individual State and affirms that MAC desires to employ corrective procedures and is willing to take remedial action as set forth in this Order.

MULTI-STATE EXAMINATION FINDINGS

WHEREAS, the Multi-State Examination revealed that MAC implemented and maintained a formal, written policy that permitted individuals unlicensed in particular states to originate a loan within that state and submit the information to a centralized lending area referred to as the "Interstate Lending Desk" ("ILD") which was staffed by mortgage loan originators ("MLOs") who were licensed in multiple states.

WHEREAS, the Multi-State Examination revealed that MAC, through its written policy, permitted individuals to: negotiate loan rates and terms with the applicant, complete a Uniform Residential Loan Application ("1003 Form"); obtain a credit bureau report on the applicant; submit the 1003 Form to the Decision Underwriter system to determine the applicant's eligibility; and lock the loan rate for applicants, in particular states in which the individuals did not hold a license.

WHEREAS, the Multi-State Examination revealed that at times during the examination period, MAC's written policy permitted individuals unlicensed in particular states, to complete a worksheet developed by MAC which, when completed by the unlicensed individual, was transferred to the ILD and forwarded to a licensed MLO for signature on the 1003, in violation of the States' mortgage originator licensing requirements.

WHEREAS, the Multi-State Examination revealed that MAC tracked the identity of the individual unlicensed in particular states for compensation purposes, and further, that MAC compensated the unlicensed individuals for the loan origination.

WHEREAS, the Multi-State Examination revealed that MAC violated certain State reporting requirements.

WHEREAS, the Multi-State Examination revealed that MAC failed to adequately supervise mortgage loan solicitation and origination activities.

WHEREAS, the Multi-State Examination revealed that MAC lacked the proper internal controls necessary to oversee its mortgage origination operations.

WHEREAS, the Multi-State Examination revealed that MAC failed to maintain supervision and control over mortgage originators and failed to keep adequate records of the unlicensed individual's original documents, files and records.

WHEREAS, the Multi-State Examination revealed that MAC engaged in prohibited business practices by originating loans through the unlicensed individuals.

WHEREAS, the Multi-State Examination alleged that MAC displayed negligence and incompetence in the mortgage business by originating loans through individuals who did not hold a license.

WHEREAS, the Multi-State Examination revealed that MAC violated the statutory sections of the State Mortgage Regulators summarized in Appendix A.

WHEREAS, the Parties now seek to resolve by mutual agreement all issues raised during the Multi-State Examination.

AGREEMENT

1. Compliance. Upon the Effective Date of this Order, MAC shall:
 - a. Ensure that: (i) all mortgage loans are originated by MLOs who are properly licensed in the state in which the MLO conducts business; and (ii) all mortgage applications are taken and signed by the licensed MLO conducting the application interview;
 - b. Ensure that all policies, procedures and controls permit only licensed individuals to engage in mortgage origination activities. MAC assures the State Mortgage Regulators that this is the case and that its ILD no longer exists;
 - c. Ensure that its record-keeping complies with the laws in the State Mortgage Regulators' jurisdictions;
 - d. Ensure that all mortgage applications are taken and signed by a licensed MLO conducting the application interview; and
 - e. Ensure that all records originated by MAC in the course of business are preserved and retained in a manner as prescribed by applicable State and Federal laws.

2. Internal Control Plan. Within ninety (90) days of the Effective Date of this Order, MAC shall submit an acceptable internal control plan (the "Plan") to the State Mortgage Regulators which sets forth at a minimum policies and procedures to:

- d. Develop, implement and maintain technology to prevent unlicensed individuals from submitting any consumer information including but not limited to: 1003 Forms; obtaining a credit bureau report on applicants; submitting the 1003 Form to the Decision Underwriter system to determine the applicants' eligibility; and locking the loan rate for applicants;
- e. Ensure an effective system of preventing unlicensed individuals from soliciting, originating and receiving compensation for unlicensed activity;

The Department’s ability to levy fines is stated in KRS 286.8-046(1) and reads as follows: “The commissioner may levy a civil penalty against any person who violates any provision of or any administrative regulation promulgated under this subtitle or order issued by the commissioner under this subtitle. The civil penalty shall be not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000) nor more than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) per violation, plus the state's costs and expenses for the examination, investigation, and prosecution of the matter, including reasonable attorney's fees and court costs.”
