

Ethics Statement – State Education Resource Center

SERC employees have positions of trust and responsibility that require them to uphold the highest ethical standards. It is impossible to achieve the agency's mission: Equity. Excellence. Education. without the uncompromising practice of SERC's beliefs and values, one of which states our commitment and responsibility in providing a trusting environment. This fundamental responsibility correlates with SERC's vision and mission and is the cornerstone to ethics and ethical responsibility.