Activity 2b: Providing Effective Feedback

DESCRIPTION

Participants identify five essential skills for CT coaches that will support them when providing feedback to teachers. Through the use of a coaching session video, they will recognize the use of the essential skills to enable the teacher to grow instructional skills in the classroom.

DIRECTIONS

1. Watch the video of a coaching session. Using the Essential Skills for Coaches in Action tool below as a guide, observe the various skills the coach uses during the session.
2. Record elements of the coaching session that reflect the five essential skills.
3. After watching the video, discuss in your group essential skills that the coach effectively used during the session. Include in your discussions, ‘missed opportunities’ that would have made for a stronger coaching conference.
