Compendium Program: Anger: Creating New Choices

Gender Specific for:BOTH; RT Program Code: NC

---

Open Close:True, Session Group:False, Session Numbers: 1, Evidence Based:True

Description:

Cognitive Behavior Therapy (CBT), which explains that human behavior and emotions are caused by one's thoughts, is an Evidence Based Practice. Anger: Creating New Choices video series and workbooks take participants through a reflection of their actions and emotions and how those are influenced by their thoughts, utilizing the CBT Evidence Based Practices.

CBT is based on an educational model on the scientifically supported assumption that most emotional and behavioral reactions are learned. Therefore, the goal of CBT is to help students unlearn their unwanted reactions and to learn a new way of reacting.

The educational emphasis of CBT has an additional benefit – it leads to long term results. When people understand how and why they are doing well, they know what to do to continue doing well.

CBT lessons have a specific agenda for each session with specific techniques/ concepts taught during each session. CBT focuses on the student's goals. Instructors are directive in the sense that they show students how to think and behave in ways to obtain what they want. Therefore, CBT techniques do not tell students what to do – rather, they teach students how to do.

Anger: Creating New Choices videos and workbook utilize the Cognitive Behavior Therapy format, making them an effective part of a rehabilitation program (Simpson, 2004).

Description:

The Transition Library (under USD#1's auspices) offers a comprehensive selection of self-help publications and forms geared at fostering greater autonomy over pre-release strategies. Offenders contact the library, via transition checklist, to obtain materials tailored for an inmates individual need upon release. Inmate Transition Tutors (TT's), assigned to each housing unit, assist inmates in selecting appropriate resources, deciphering publication language and completing necessary documents from the Transition Library. Under facility staff auspices each TT makes himself available to answer questions and offer assistance to those who request it within the dormitory setting. TT's complete a monthly log sheet of individual contacts made and services requested assessing program features, immediate needs and user comments. USD#1 and facility staff each review the sheets respectively to monitor the program's outcomes and determine need areas.

Description:

The special education teachers, pupil services specialists (School Psychologists, School Counselors, School Social Workers), and the associated clerical and durational staff provide services to students with handicapping conditions which interfere with their ability to participate in school. These services are mandated by federal (Individuals with Disabilities Education Act Amendments of 1997) and state (Connecticut General Statutes 10-76) statute. Special education services encompass a broad array of activities including assessment, counseling, transition planning, and both the direct and indirect (e.g. consultation) services of the special education teachers and pupil services staff. Student programs are designed according to the individual needs of each student with disabilities and are specified in an Individualized Education Plan (IEP.) A social skills component is a part of the special education program.
